Recycling site stays open

... but closed on Sundays and only garden waste allowed on Saturdays

THE battle to keep Bridport's Household Recycling Centre (HRC) open was won last week – but residents still face heavy weekend restrictions.

Starting next month the HRC will close on Sundays and will only accept garden waste on Saturdays, to limit noise disturbance to nearby residents.

Reluctant Dorset county councillors agreed to extend temporary planning consent at the site for a sixth time last week, as there was still no solution to the ongoing Waste Transfer Station (WTS) saga.

At the DCC planning committee last week councillors said they were "embarrassed" that officers had taken so long to find a location for the new WTS and insisted the latest two-year extension for the HRC would be the last.

By Tom Glover

Robert Gould, Dorset County Council's cabinet member for the environment, admitted this was not the ideal outcome and insisted that measures would be taken to stop potential fly-tipping: "Our priority was to strike a balance between addressing the key concern of nearby residents and making sure local people had somewhere to recycle their waste. To achieve this, restricting weekend operations was the best option available," he said.

"We've worked hard to find a solution to keep the South Street facility open while work to deliver a new waste management facility for the area is ongoing. Over the next few weeks every effort will be made to inform local people of the changes and of alternative facilities available."

Leader of the Bridport Town Council, Dave Rickard, said he was pleased with the result but still had concerns about the implications the town now faced.

"Ideally we would have liked to make it more accessible to people at weekends but that wasn't an option," he said.

"They made it very clear that they were embarrassed and annoyed that their officers had taken so long and had made such a hash of finding a site for the WTS."

"They also made it clear that their officers really need to get down to it now and make sure in two year's time this isn't a problem again."

"All in all I think it was a good result. I think it will still cause some problems but the alternatives were just not acceptable."

Bridport Town Councillor, Karl Wallace, was also pleased with the outcome but feared that such strong weekend restrictions were unworkable and uneconomical. "The pressure is now on for the WTS to be pushed through really quickly but we need to make sure things are done properly and we don't leave any stone unturned," he said.

"I'm pleased that the centre won't be closing altogether but I still think that only opening for garden waste on a Saturday is ridiculous and completely unworkable."

"There is still a threat of fly tipping. It is potentially not as bad as it would have been if it had closed altogether but it's still a possibility."

Bridport Town Councillor Keith Day however was angered by the decision and is urging the public to support a petition to keep the centre open at weekends.

"Once again the hard working people of Bridport have been short-changed," he said.

"They will now be forced to use their precious weekend and family time to take their waste to Dorchester, Weymouth or Sherborne – and how is that helping the environment?"

"The current cost of fuel will also have an impact on these already financially squeezed families. We have been waiting for a new waste site for Bridport for years, progress is so slow – and now this!"

TALENTED choreographer Jane Hutchins, 34, moved to Dorset five-years-ago and has already become heavily involved with local theatre.

Jane grew up in London and studied at Brighton University before living in Sydney for a year.

During her time in Australia Jane met her husband Jay and they moved back to England before travelling South, Central and North America.

Jane moved to Dorset after falling pregnant with her daughter Isla and last year had her second child, son Mac.

Jane has worked for Lymelight's Theatre School for four years now and is currently the principle teacher in Honiton. She also runs Lymetikes in Bridport for younger children.

On a voluntary basis, Jane has choreographed shows for Burton Bradstock Players, Charmouth Companions, Open House Productions and Marvellous Amateur Dramatics (MAD).

Jane is currently choreographing "Our House", the Madness musical, which will be performed at Bridport's Electric Palace from March 31st to April 2nd.

■ WHAT are your first memories of performing?

Doing my first ballet show in a theatre in Hammersmith, London when I was about six; I was a leaf. My fellow leaves and I were all fluttering our arms at the front of the stage when I spotted my family in the audience. I was smiling at them with such pride that I failed to notice the other leaves continuing with the dance and stood there for the duration beaming.

■ WHAT are your favourite shows you've worked on?

I loved Bugsy Malone, which I choreographed with Open House. It's been one of my favourite shows since I was a child, and I had a great cast to work with. I did Grease a couple of years ago with Lymelights which was fab, lots of lively dance routines. I especially liked the Hand Jive where I got to teach some cool lifts with Danny, Sandy and Cha Cha.

And I'm loving Our House, I think the cast age for this show is my favourite group to work with and there are some really meaty dance routines for me to get stuck into. I'm also working on a circus performance at the moment with my little ones at Lymetikes which is loads of fun.

■ WHAT are your favourite dances in Our House?

Baggy Trousers is great. There are lots of different parts to it and a section in the middle where the whole cast get to go nuts – body-popping, break dancing, can-caning, leap-frogging, face-slapping, hair pulling – the lot! I also love the market scene. It's set to 'The Sun and the Rain' but has an amusing take on the market scene from Oliver included. A couple of the dance routines involve some magical onstage costume changes which are going to look amazing.

■ WHO does "Our House" appeal to?

Everyone really, it's a 'coming of age' story. In the show we see Joe's life taken down two different paths based on a decision he makes on his 16th birthday. We've all been young and been through phases in our life where we lack direction and are unsure of which choices to make, so I think there's something for everyone to identify with. Teenagers will love it as the cast are principally 15-20-year-olds. And of course, it's a must for Madness fans as we do great renditions of all their famous tracks.

■ WHAT are your three top tips to impress on the dance floor?

On the dance floor – snake hips, flirty eyes and moving like you're on wheels – always worked for me! On the stage – extended arms, pointed toes and a big smile.

■ WHERE do you see yourself in five years time?

Still in Dorset, although in Australia or Canada if my husband has anything to do with it. I love it here. Of all the places in the world that I've visited, I can honestly say that West Dorset is up there with the most beautiful. I drive along the coast road to get into town every day and there is one peak that coming over it, never fails to take my breath away. Still teaching and choreographing – I love it.

■ WHO would be your three dream guests at a dinner party and why?

Steven Fry as he's the fountain of all knowledge. Stevie Wonder and his piano to get down and funky to. George Lamb as a bit of eye candy.

■ WHAT was the last book you read, film you watched and CD you listened to?

Mile High Apple Pie to my daughter – an amazing book about little girl's relationship with her Grandmother who has dementia, Black Swan, Florence and the Machine.

Further war of words over plans for Charles Street offices

NEW offices for West Dorset District Council were again the subject of controversy last week after the Liberal Democrat group on the council tried to re-open discussions on the proposals.

The move came after a new offer, which they claimed could save the taxpayer £3 million, came from the Duchy of Cornwall.

The leader of the WDDC, Robert Gould, described the letter from the Duchy as coming from "out of the blue".

In a return letter to Duchy officials he described the offer as a "clear attempt to derail the democratically taken decision" and also said that the decision to come forward with an offer at this late stage as being "disingenuous".

District Councillor Ros Kayes said: "This is no way for an elected leader of a public body to be responding to officials from the Duchy of Cornwall. It says a lot about Robert Gould's operational style. It is clearly intended to give offence.

"At every stage this process has been mired in obfuscation and lack of transparency. The financial support of £1/4 million to Simons was introduced at an executive meeting as an urgent item so that no-one had a chance to see the figures beforehand. Council has never fully debated the proposals because they were introduced as exempt business; a referendum by the residents of Dorchester has been completely ignored; the national press and the BBC have attempted to expose the issue and now the chair of council has refused to allow open debate of this new offer.

"This is a travesty of the democratic process - there are serious questions to be asked about this whole proposal. The only power to stop the proposals now rests with the electorate of West Dorset. The Conservatives and Independents voted unanimously yesterday not to discuss these proposals. I urge the electorate to stop this white elephant of a scheme, which is a total waste of tax-payers money by expressing their opinion through the ballot box."

A reappraisal of the plans, initiated by Councillor Ros Kayes, was blocked by the WDDC last week, despite admissions that they were not all aware of the details of the offer.

Bridport Town Councillor David Tett said the decision was a victory for "common sense".

The changes will come into effect on Saturday, April 16th, additional site staff will be on hand on Saturdays, from this date, to help deal with the anticipated increase in queries.

Local residents wishing to recycle their waste at week-ends are encouraged to visit other county council sites, which include St Georges Road in Dorchester, Preston Beach Road in Weymouth and West Mill Lane in Sherborne.

The South Street site will continue to open Monday to Friday, 9am to 5pm, November to March and from 9am to 6pm, April to October. All the usual range of recycling and waste disposal facilities will remain at the site and all waste materials will be accepted on weekdays.

Saturday opening will be from 10am to 4pm, exclusively for garden waste.

Residents are also encouraged to maximise the use of their existing kerbside collection scheme as well as use local mini recycling banks.

West Dorset District Council can provide a collection service for large, bulky items of household waste for a fee. For more information on alternatives visit www.dorsetforyou.com.

Co-op fundraiser to continue

By Stuart Broom

A SIMPLE idea of displaying customer's unwanted books and videos in Bridport Co-operative has been so successful and so easy to run that the store has decided to continue running the scheme alongside its official charity for this year, Mencap.

The Sea Road North store began displaying unwanted customer and staff books, DVD's and videos near the tills last summer to help raise badly needed funds for the Dorset & Somerset Air Ambulance.

People were encouraged to take anything they fancied in exchange for a 50p donation per item.

The Co-op had already made a donation of almost £1,900 last September, but handed over another £3,198 to Annette Plaistow-Trapaud, the charity's fund raising co-ordinator at the store last week.

Store manager Rob Garland said: "It's amazing how well it's gone. Whilst we will be supporting our official charity Mencap in 2011, because the stall needs no managing except topping up with items, we thought it worth continuing the scheme, at the same time helping to raise funds for the Dorset & Somerset Air Ambulance which is such a worthwhile charity."

Mrs Plaistow-Trapaud said: "We are very grateful to Bridport Co-op for their generous donation. It is such a simple, novel scheme but appears very popular. This donation will almost cover the cost of keeping the helicopter in the air for a day and is an invaluable contribution."

Mr Garland added: "If anybody has any unwanted good condition items which they wish to donate, we will be pleased to put them on display."

■ COLLECTING THE EMPTIES - Richard Low and Andy Downton gather up the empty paint cans

Tins into play equipment

EMPTY paint tins are being put to good use by Magna Housing Association – they're being recycled into play equipment and benches.

Magna gets through around 12,000 litres of paint each year, as its decorators re-vamp homes and communal areas across West Dorset and beyond.

And rather than dump the empty tins at landfill sites, Magna, which owns and manages more than 6,000 homes, has signed up to the Dulux can recycling service.

The paint tins are collected and then reprocessed. Plastic cans are used to make things like garden furniture, while metal tins can be recycled into tools.

Head of building services Trea Murphy said: "Magna is committed to sustainability and reducing our carbon footprint. This is just one of the ways we can do our bit to help the environment."

The idea came from Magna's Dorchester-based stores team. They wanted to find a way to reduce the company's impact on the environment and save money on disposing of the thousands of paint tins that build up every year.

Magna is also involved at the other end of the recycling circle.

Ken Bodycombe, Magna's community development manager, said: "We have installed a number of benches in the area which are made from recycled plastic. They're quite expensive – about £650 – but they last a long time because they're so strong. They also don't need any maintenance."

Please fill in your census form

WEST Dorset residents are being asked by the district council to make sure they fill in the census when it comes through their letterboxes this month.

All residential households in the UK will be taking part in the census, which forms statistics that help identify people's needs to help local authorities plan and provide local services.

West Dorset District Council Leader Robert Gould said: "The census provides an excellent source of information about the population. This enables central and local government, health authorities and many other organisations to plan housing, education, health and transport services for years to come.

"We are asking all West Dorset residents to make sure that they fill in the Census when it comes through their letterboxes as the results will help the council plan and deliver its services."

Many people choose to complete the questionnaire online. To do this you will need your individual internet code which is on the front of the questionnaire.

More information about the 2011 Census can be found at: www.census.gov.uk

'Another setback' says business owner over coast road closures

ROADWORKS on the B3157 coast road have been met with criticism from road safety campaigners and business owners on the route.

Owner of the Hive Beach Café, Steve Attrill, said that road closures were the last thing businesses on the route needed whilst road safety campaigners fear the improvements may be misdirected and lead to further accidents.

The roadworks are the final phase of a partnership project to improve safety on the route.

Most of the works will be controlled with temporary traffic lights but resurfacing work will require three sections of the road to be closed in the coming weeks.

Alternative routes will be signed and access to local businesses will be maintained throughout but Mr Attrill of the Hive Beach Café at Burton Bradstock fears that this is just another setback for businesses on the road.

"All improvements to transport systems prior to the 2012 Games are welcome but it seems harsh in the current economic climate to undertake major works at the beginning of the tourist season," he said.

"At the end of a decade of closures, disasters ranging from oil on the beach to tornadoes, a settled patch would be very welcome indeed.

"Unless our customers circumnavigate the lanes around the Bride Valley we stand to lose a substantial amount of trade. And all of this is happening without consultation with business owners. Also, as yet, we have not worked out how regular delivery lorries will reach us in our normal hours of opening."

Andy Ackerman, Dorset County Council's head of highways, said: "The safety enhancement work now underway along the B3157 coast road consists mainly of fairly minor works - such as signing, lining, changes to lay-bys and gateways, and so on - which should not cause too much traffic disruption or require road closures. This work has been planned following discussions with local town and parish councils along the route.

"We will also be carrying out some essential resurfacing work along some sections of the route during March and April. This work is badly needed to repair potholes and other damage caused by the recent ice and snow, and local communities are very keen that we complete this work as quickly as possible.

"Night-time time work on such projects is carried out very rarely in urban

Parish Council and a member of the Project Safety Advisory Board, said that he was pleased that some of the road engineering safety aspects were being implemented but was disappointed that some of the efforts seemed "misdirected" and "unsupported"

'It seems harsh in the current economic climate to undertake major works at the beginning of the tourist season' areas, because of the disruptive effect of the noise and lighting on local residents. However, if any businesses are directly affected by such works - or are immediately adjacent to them - we get in touch with the traders to explain what is going to happen and listen to any concerns they may have."

The planned safety enhancements have also come under criticism. Tony Edwards, Chairman of Puncknowle & Swyre by traffic accident statistics.

"I'm particularly disappointed that the board had not been able to persuade county council highways officials to restore all centre lining - rather than just at identified hazard spots," he said.

"I also believe that the radical changes proposed to the road layout at Burton Bradstock (which will involve road-narrowing, shared usage footpaths and road crossings) should have been subjected to wider public examination of the likely effects on all road users, the proven need for the changes, and the costs - in the context of reducing accidents along the route."

Mr Edwards said these changes will lead to "significant traffic hold-ups" and could cause frustrated drivers to speed and drive carelessly.

He believes money may have been better spent on other traffic-calming measures including speed indicator devices, tourist/visitor parking/picnic areas, limited access to HGVs, driver awareness and education programmes, continuation of the police's "No Excuse" campaign and development of cycleways and pathways along the coastal route.

He added: "Safety on this road will continue to be monitored and reported on by local residents with a view to further changes.

THE B3157 project brings together partners including the county council, local town and parish councils, the Dorset Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty team and Dorset Police with the aim of improving safety along the whole route using methods in keeping with the rural setting.

During March and April, Dorset County Council will be making a range of safety enhancements as well as taking the opportunity to resurface sections of the B3157 during this period.

The majority of the work will be done between 7:45am and 4:30pm Monday to Friday and 7:45am and 1pm on Saturdays, using temporary traffic signals or stop/go boards.

This phase of the project involves enhancing features of the route passing through settlements, including gateway features built from natural materials and coloured surfacing at entrances to villages. There will also be improvements for pedestrians through villages such as Burton Bradstock, narrowing sections of road through villages and improving sight lines and adding anti-skid surfacing at bends.

Following discussions with local town and parish councils, the county council has agreed to provide additional road markings and cats-eyes at specific locations along the route.

On Friday, March 11th, a new 50mph speed limit will also come into force on the B3157 between Chickerell and Portesham.

The resurfacing work will include areas of the road where potholes appeared following the earlier removal of cats-eyes.

Road closures will be in place from 8:45am to 3:30pm, subject to change, on the following dates:

- March 16 - March 25 at West Street, Abbotsbury, from The Square to the foot of Abbotsbury Hill
- March 28 - April 1 at Elworth Bend, for approximately 150 yards to either side of the Elworth Junction
- April 4 - April 8 at High Street, Burton Bradstock, between Cliff Road and Mill Lane.

Back to school kitchen for top chef

RENOWNED chef and restaurateur Mark Hix generously gave up his time to work with catering students at the Sir John Colfox School to produce a meal for an invited audience of local business leaders who support the school.

Mark, an ex-Colfox student himself, opened the school's new Hospitality and Catering Suite in November 2010 and has now "pitched in" to further support the students and the school which currently hosts catering courses for 14-16 year olds across the schools in the West Dorset Rural Federation (Colfox, Beaminster and Woodroffe).

The day started for the students with a butchery demonstration by Philip Frampton, with Mark explaining how each joint of meat could be used. Then it was heads down to get cooking.

Mark had brought with him his own general manager and maitre d' from his London restaurant Hix, Dariush Tamadon Nejad and Tabitha Money, as well as John Hutton of Fields, Morris and Verdin who kindly donated the champagne for the evening and explained why he had selected the particular wines on offer.

Guests enjoyed a three course gastronomic delight. "This was a fantastic event," said headteacher, Kay Taylor. "It was a really enjoyable evening and a great way to say 'thank you' to all those businesses who work with our students, sponsor awards or sports teams in school and offer work experience placements."

The catering students learned what a real working kitchen was like and were able to improve their skills and knowledge.

"It was a fantastic opportunity for them", said Graham Farrow, head of vocational education at the school. "They really learned a lot from it and appreciated Mark's generosity in supporting them. They say it was an experience they will never forget."

"We hope this will be the first of many such events" said the chairman of governors, Martin Stones. "The school is keen to work more with local businesses for the benefit of both."

The school is starting post-16 courses in September in hospitality and catering and hopes to be able to offer day release training for health and hygiene courses to local businesses.

"This is a very important development for the school," said Kay Taylor. "And we could not have asked for a better launch."

"Thanks to Mark's support, which will be on going, we know we can offer students a really first class experience"

The Nothe Gardens in Weymouth has been selected as the proposed ticketed spectator location during the Olympic Games Sailing events in 2012. In order for this to happen, temporary structures and facilities will need to be installed at the Nothe Gardens. BEDTIME stories were the theme of celebrations last week as Symonds Primary School marked World Book Day.

Pupils came to school in pyjamas, dressing gowns and slippers and shared their favourite bedtime stories with each other.

Some classes then had a go at writing their own bedtime stories before parents arrived in the afternoon for a reading with their children.

The school will now be busily preparing for their mock Royal Wedding, which will be held in the village in April.

Children at the Bridport nursery dressed as their favourite characters to celebrate World Book Day.

The award for best costume went to Daniel Marks who came as Captain Hook, complete with pull along crocodile, hook and sword. Each child received a set of books donated to the nursery by a local author as well as a book token.

Red Nose fundraiser is out of this world

■ OUT OF THIS WORLD - The alien costume which sparked the idea for Jane

by Tom Glover

AN alien, a chicken and a penguin will be singing their way to a world record in aid of comic relief next week.

Bridport Town Crier Jane Silver-Corren last year raised £850 for the charity by hitchhiking from Bridport to Penzance but this year her fundraising will be kept local.

Dressed as an alien she will be joined by friends Mary Elliott, who will dress as a chicken, and Cathy Hodgkins, who will be dressed as a penguin.

The unlikely trio will attempt to sing 100 songs, with 100 different groups of people in 100 different places around Bridport.

As well as rounding up singers in shops, pubs, schools and nursing homes, the group will also be stopping anyone they can along the way to sing everything from nursery rhymes to Abba hits.

Jane dreamt up the idea after seeing the alien costume at a performance at the Bridport Arts Centre by the Miracle Theatre Company.

They agreed to let her borrow the costume as long as her fundraising plans didn't involve sitting down, as this could damage the tentacles.

"That meant I couldn't hitchhike again as that would involve a lot of sitting in cars," she said.

"I won't be doing a lot of sitting down with this challenge and I thought it would be a good way to keep it within Bridport as well. We won't force anyone to sing but it would be nice if we could get a lot of people to join us for a song."

The record attempt will take place between 8.30am and 5pm on Friday, March 18th, Red Nose Day.

There will be a collection box located in The Dorset Pedlar on South Street for those who wish to sponsor the trio and donations can also be made on the Red Nose Day website <http://my.rednoseday.com/alienandfriendssingathon>. Jane will also be carrying a collection bucket with her on the day.

This week Jane will also launch a children's choir in the town, with plans to perform with them at future community events. If your child is aged 10 to 14-years-old and has experience singing contact Jane on 07887 675161.

Suits you, sir!

■ IN STYLE: Maths teacher Mark Griffin sports a new hair colour after making a deal with pupils to 'Go Pink' if they raised £1,000 for Breakthrough Breast Cancer

MATHS teacher Mark Griffin is now sporting a natty luminous pink haircut after he challenged pupils from The Sir John Colfox School to raise £1,000 for the Breakthrough Breast Cancer charity. The students, some of whom are pictured in our photo with Mr Griffin had raised £1,105 by last Monday for the 'Go Pink' campaign through a number of means including sponsorship, a Toro House non-uniform day and donations. They are expecting to top £1,200 by Friday's deadline.

Mr Griffin, however, now has the problem of returning to his normal distinguished silver colour.

"I don't mind because it is for a great cause, and I want to thank Susie at Head Office in Beaminster for my new look," he said.

"However, following my media interview I will be washing it immediately. I am going abroad at Easter and don't want to be stopped at immigration for standing out in any way! My wife actually offered me the money not to dye it, but it was my money she was offering, and I thought the students would like a challenge.

"I want to thank everyone who has supported me, particularly the students who have been great."

How can councillors even contemplate it?

Send your letters to Tom Glover
tom@pemedial.co.uk

■ I WRITE with reference to the letter printed in the View on Wednesday, February 23rd, 2011 from Tony Alford, vice chairman of West Dorset District Council Executive Committee.

So, the new offices and library for Dorchester, according to Tony Alford, will save us £200,000 annually. Wow! Are you serious? Even if it does save this for a few years, it's hardly going to dent the £10million (always assuming, of course, that no extras turn up along the way) that WDDC councillors, despite not being obliged to spend in this manner, chose as their priority.

Did no one pay any consideration to the fact that that it will take 50 years just to break even? Will this saving be of any value in a few years time? A new Mini cost £500 48 years ago. Today it's £22,500.

So £500 today is worth just 1/45 of what it used to be.

Despite this 'saving' for local tax payers and the cut in government grant, we are told, the council has been able to protect frontline and/or essential services. Unfortunately though, reductions had to be made in school crossing patrols, rural road maintenance, youth services, the minor injury unit, Connexions and passenger transport to name but a few. Not forgetting the plans to close 20 libraries.

But, hey, we can now park for free in the evenings and on Sundays and short stay parking charges are frozen from April. I suppose these things just depend on your classification of services.

How can councillors even contemplate such an expensive development in this economic climate? As far as general savings are concerned, similar ones can be made without moving – such as printer/photocopying costs, reduced staffing, heating and lighting, general admin costs. If parts of the building are not used, they could be rented out. Perhaps a reduction in accountancy staff should also be considered – you know, bring in the volunteers – they may well be more familiar with financial and social priorities at grassroots level.

The new library and office development in Dorchester doesn't save us anything. We have to spend £10million to build it. Indeed, it will come at a much higher cost to those of us in the rest of West Dorset who have no choice but to contribute through their taxes and loss of many of their services.

'We wouldn't be building them if the case didn't stack up financially'

■ MUCH has been said and written about the Charles Street development in Dorchester.

A proposed judicial review has not proceeded while the last-minute Duchy offer of council offices simply doesn't add up – financially or practically.

Planning permission for the scheme has been granted and the district council has signed legal agreements with developer Simons. We are committed to making this long awaited scheme actually happen.

I would like to appeal to local people to put all the past controversy behind them and support this scheme.

How many towns can look forward to £60 million worth of private investment and hundreds of jobs at any time, let alone during one of the most economically challenging periods in living memory?

The scheme includes a larger Waitrose, new shops, hotel, affordable housing, new green area, toilets, public library and more.

Yes, it also includes £9.7 million offices but I can assure you that we wouldn't be building them if the case didn't stack up financially.

Remember, this is a council which prides itself on prudent financial management and that's why we're in one of the best positions of any council in the country.

West Dorset's share of the council tax is still one of the lowest for a district in England, and we've frozen it this year too.

And we're doing that without cutting services – how many areas have councils who can say that at the moment?

A key part of our financial plan is the move to smaller, cheaper offices at Charles Street.

Whatever people may feel about the district council I would encourage them to draw a line under all the past talk and embrace this scheme, because opportunities like this don't come around very often.

To get the facts about the scheme go www.dorset-foryou.com/charlesstreet

Quality not quantity shines among young photographers

ONCE again I was privileged to be invited by the Brit Valley Rotary Club to help judge their round of the Rotary Young Photographer competition.

The event is part of Rotary International's Youth Committee programme to find the best young photographers in Britain and Ireland. Their aim is to encourage children aged 7 to 17 to experiment with either digital or traditional methods, show interpretation of a given topic and express their ideas through the medium of photography.

The competition is open to students from Beaminster School and The Sir John Colfox School, and last year, the first, attracted 200 entries from the two age categories. However it appears that this year's theme 'The Community Spirit' was not such an inspiring subject, and entries were well down with only the senior age group represented.

The entries were of a high quality and local professional photographer Peter Millson and I were once again confronted with a hugely difficult task.

This year we had to choose a portfolio - each of four photographs - which in a way made the job more difficult than last year when it was based on single pictures, as we had to consider the group impact.

Peter's expertise and experience was invaluable with regards to the technical merit of the entries, which was one of the criteria we had to judge along with content and composition, imagination and style.

It was incredibly difficult to choose but in the end we both agreed that Year 13 A-level photography student Katherine Paul's entry of events at the Bridport Hat Festival was the best, with Ella Squirrell, a Year 10 pupil's quartet of black and white photos the runner-up.

Whilst individual photos did not qualify for the competition, the Brit Valley Rotary Club kindly donated small prizes for three photos which Peter and I thought worthy of note.

One was part of the winning portfolio; two children and an adult enjoying a sandwich. The second was a black and white entry by Sophie Gordon, a Year 12 A-level photography student, of two ladies in a European city enjoying a cup of coffee and a cigarette al fresco, which Peter thought technically was the best on display, whilst the third of a portly gentleman having a nap in a deckchair at an agricultural show by another Year 12 A-level photography stu-

Members of the public viewed the entries whilst we debated our decision accompanied by the fine voice and guitar of Year 8 student Daisy Wardle.

John Clegg, Youth Projects Coordinator of the Brit Valley Rotary Club organised the event with the help and guidance of Beaminster School's Head of Photography Tara Wickham. Mr Clegg congratulated the students on their superb efforts, and also thanked the school for hosting the event and Ms Wickham. He also thanked Daisy for her musical interlude and the judges for their time.

President of the Brit Valley Rotary Club, Leanne Richardson, presented the awards which included cash prizes for the winner and runner-up to spend on photography equipment.

The winning portfolio will now be forwarded to the district organiser who will pick an overall winner and submit it for the national final.

The photographs of the event were taken by BVRC member John Dobinson.

Growing Business

the big conversation

Start up boost for the south west economy

START ups with high growth potential have been identified across the developed world as an antidote to the downturn. This week in our 'Growing Business – the Big Conversation' campaign we look at how ambitious start ups can help spearhead the recovery in this region. A major drive has been launched to identify and encourage the region's most promising start-up businesses, providing them with the targeted support they need to realise their full potential. Funded by the European Regional Development Fund (ERDF), the three year programme, entitled 'Starting a High Growth Business', is being led by GWE Business West together with local partners. It will identify 150 new businesses across the South West – excluding Cornwall, where a separate initiative will run.

Neil Higginson, Programme Manager, ERDF Projects, who heads up the new programme, answered questions about the direction and approach of this new initiative.

Why are high growth start ups so important for the region's economy?

Influential studies demonstrate that it is a small number of highly motivated new businesses that generate the majority of new jobs. These high growth start ups are often in dynamic sectors with strong growth potential. They are innovative, create high value jobs and have a positive impact on the region's prosperity.

What support does the new initiative offer them? Our programme offers highly targeted support. This helps tackle the many challenges that are faced starting a high growth business – for example, producing a solid business plan, gaining the finance needed in the early stages of trading and safely protecting innovative ideas. We offer firms intensive one-to-one mentoring and coaching, focusing on their ambitions and ensuring that they have the skills to thrive. We will also run specialist, hands on workshops.

Which businesses are eligible?

The new programme is open to businesses with the potential to achieve between £500,000 and £1m turnover within their first three years of trading.

The attitude, aspirations and commitment of new businesses will be taken into account when selecting candidates.

Who creates these businesses?

There are serial entrepreneurs, who build one successful business after another. There are also brilliant young graduates across the region's universities and excellent innovation centres, with winning new ideas. These firms are created by a broad mix of individuals.

Ian Girling, operations manager at Business Link in Dorset, said: "Ambitious high growth businesses play a vital role in renewing the region's economy. They have the cutting edge ideas and determination to succeed that will allow this region to thrive in an increasingly competitive global economy.

"This new service will give these entrepreneurs access to relevant, locally-based support that will give a real boost to their businesses."

Local produce delivered to the door - for holidaymakers

TWO Bridport companies have teamed up with a new online food service to bring quality local produce to holidaymakers.

Dorset Holiday Cottages, which has just opened an office in South Street, Bridport, is working with Washingpool Farm Shop and a new online Dorset food service, to provide local food hampers to visitors.

Holidaymakers will be able to order fresh Dorset produce from The Rural Farm Shop Co. website, including fresh meats and eggs, teas and coffees, biscuits, cheeses, cereals, speciality breads, olives, chutneys and preserves.

The choice of food packs includes: a full Dorset breakfast; summer barbecue; welcome packs and speciality treat hampers. All the foods will come from local producers across the county.

Online orders will be packaged up from the shelves of farm shops around the county including Washingpool Farm Shop in Bridport, Craig's Dairy in Osmington and Pampered Pigs in Bere

Regis. Deliveries will be available across the county, making this the first fully co-ordinated 'farm shop to fork' web business in the UK.

Jeremy Smith from Dorset Holiday Cottages said: "Visiting foodies are in for a treat with these mobile banquets. What a great way to start your holiday in Dorset - with a delivery of delicious local food arriving on your doorstep.

"We are expecting around 30,000 holidaymakers this year and we think they'll love this idea. As a Dorset family business ourselves, we have a policy of only working with local companies, so we're particularly pleased to spread the word and support our county's wonderful food and farm shops."

The Rural Farm Shop Co. plans to have its website up and running in May, in time for the summer season.

Martyn Pring, who has 25 years in marketing and tourism, runs the company with his wife Kay who has 17 years experience in retail - most recently with farm shops. They developed their local food delivery business after noticing that visitors are always keen to buy quality, Dorset branded products.

Simon Holland from Washingpool said: "This is a great scheme which will encourage holidaymakers to try local and buy local throughout their visit, rather than just using the supermarkets. As well as supporting our local economy and cutting food miles, I'm sure this will boost Dorset's reputation for fantastic food."

Bright logo for festival

A FUN new look has been given to Bridport Food Festival for 2011 thanks to the creativity of a local designer. The event, now in its eighth year, has become a much-loved fixture in Bridport's calendar among both locals and visitors and now has a new logo.

The new design is the work of Pencil-Line Design, and the creation of young local designer Becky Kingston. "The food festival is such a vibrant, lively event and I wanted to reflect that in the new design" said Becky.

Festival organiser Amanda Streatfield said "the festival is fortunate to have the input of so many local people and we're delighted with the creativity that Becky has put into this for us."

This years Bridport Food Festival is set to take place from June 12-18th 2011 with events planned throughout the town and at Asker Meadows.

'Unthinkable' that bells should fall silent

VILLAGERS in Chideock are rallying around to raise £70,000 to help keep historic church bells ringing.

After 400 years of heralding every major event, from the end of the war to the coronation, the bell frame in St Giles church has become unsafe.

At present, there are five bells, which hang in a 400-year-old frame. The bells are of four different ages, with the oldest being cast in 1640, and the newest two in 1887.

It was at the last hanging in 1887 that any work was carried out, so after 114 years of wear and tear and corrosion, the time has come for major works to be undertaken.

At the moment the bells continue to be rung, with fortnightly inspections, to ensure that the frame is still safe.

by Tom Glover

The urgent works will involve removing the bells, and the oak frame, disposing of the frame, and replacing it with a new steel frame. The bells will also need to be taken away, re-tuned, and be fitted with new modern hangings.

A new sixth bell from an old church in Shropshire has also been purchased and will be added to the new frame when it is assembled.

Fundraising committee member, Adrian Humphries, said: "The cost of this exercise in financial terms is substantial, but the cost to the village of not having bells is far greater.

"This is not simply the responsibility of the church, or those villagers who regularly attend church. Indeed these people are already making a substantial contribution to the up-keep of the church itself. It is the responsibility of the village as a whole, and on that basis a committee has been formed to ensure that the project is efficiently managed, and that the village is not put into the unthinkable situation where the bells fall silent.

"There is a lot of money to raise, and the village will need to be more innovative and generous than ever before.

"The committee believes that with considerable effort, it should be possible to raise around £40,000 from grants and other funds. This will leave around £30,000 to be raised by the village."

The fundraising committee are already underway with their fundraising events. The Chideock Cider Makers have also chosen the Church Bell Appeal as their charity this year and will be doing various fund raising events including their annual pumpkin growing competition and a skittles week.

■ DINNER IS SERVED - Steve Warburton serves up a perfect roast dinner for Annette Tilley

■ MASTER CHEFS - Nick Zaiger, Denys Brunsten, Paul Pickard-smith, Colin Bowditch & Steve Warburton get ready for their diners

... so men make a start on the cooking

MEN of Chideock have put their culinary skills to the test to help the appeal to save the church bells.

At the "Men Can Cook Too" event last month a team of eager villagers came together to make a Sunday roast dinner complete with a selection of desserts.

Over 80 people were fed by the chefs and more than £800 was raised for the Church Bell Appeal.

The next big fundraising events will be a Flower Festival at St Giles Church on Saturday, April 23rd, from 2-4pm, Sunday, April 24th 2-4pm and Monday, April 25th, 10am to 6pm all on the theme of bells. There will also be a massive plant sale on Monday, April 25th also at the church, 1.30 to 5pm.

...get your garden ready for summer

As the soil starts to warm up and the days start lengthening a great deal of preparation work can be undertaken now to ensure your garden looks its best during the year. The following are jobs that need to be done from late February to May and while you may not have all of these in your garden the list below should be a good tick sheet for the various things that need doing. So brave the weather and enjoy the fresh air!

Borders:

- Prune summer flowering deciduous shrubs eg, buddleja, caryopteris and hardy fuschia and clematis that flower after mid-summer eg, Clematis tangutica and

C. 'Jackmanii'

- Cut down seedheads of herbaceous perennials and ornamental grasses
- Lift and divide clumps of herbaceous perennials
- This is the time to plant trees, shrubs and roses

wet areas

- Sow hardy annuals outdoors and tender plants indoors
- Plant summer flowering bulbs
- Apply a general purpose fertiliser and mulch beds and borders including roses and shrubs

Kitchen garden:

- Sow beetroot, broad beans, carrots, cucumbers, lettuce, onions, parsnips, peas, radish, spinach, turnips and herbs outdoors

- Pot up tomato seedlings when the first true leaves appear
- Plant out early potatoes and garlic and onion sets
- Feed fruit with sulphate of potash at 15g per sq m
- Plant bare-rooted fruit trees, bushes and soft fruits

Lawn:

- Scarify the lawn with a spring-tined rake
- Start to mow the lawn when new growth starts at the highest setting
- Turf and seed new

lawns

- Apply a spring and summer lawn fertiliser

Late spring

Borders:

- Finish sowing any hardy annuals (plants that have a one-year lifecycle) outdoors
- Plant out cannas, dahlias, and chrysanthemums after the last frosts
- Harden off seed- and cutting-raised plants

- Feed container plants

with a liquid feed

How to keep those pests off your beautiful, blossoming garden

Have you had it with those garden pests? Here are some tips for keeping rodents and insects out of your vegetable garden and your flower beds.

1. First, there's the critters. Scattering moth balls around your garden and flower beds will keep cats and rodents out. Cats won't use your garden and beds as a litter box if you scatter an orange peel and coffee ground mixture. Also, if you have young saplings wrap a few strips of fiberglass insulation around them to keep rodents off.

2. Making a simple scarecrow will keep unwanted birds and other pests away. Take some grocery sacks, fill with air, and tie shut with a rubber band. Place some stakes around your garden and tie the bags to them. The rustling sounds will scare them away.

3. If you have strawberries plants that get robbed by birds, get some driveway stones. Paint the stones red, and scatter them around your plants. The birds will get fed up with the hard "strawberries" and leave them alone by the time they are ripe.

4. Deer can be troublesome also. Try scattering hair around your garden. Human hair will work, but other animal hair may work better. And if you're a real desperate to keep deer out, go to your local zoo and get some exotic animal dung. They will be glad to give you some! I also can across the tip of putting Christmas lights around your garden. But it may become the talk of town, lighting your garden.

Maybe using porch party lights wouldn't look so odd.

5. And now for those insects. A mixture of 4 Tbsp dish soap in 1 gallon of water sprayed in your garden will keep aphids, spider mites, and other pests away. You could also spray leftover coffee where spider mites hang out. If you have a plant infected with spider mites, mix up 1/2 cup buttermilk, 4 cups wheat flour, and 5 gallons of water. Spray or pour onto plants. Mix some cayenne peppers with water in a blender. Spray the mixture in your garden to keep ants, spiders, caterpillars, and cabbage worms out.

6. If you have insects bothering your perennials, mix up some black pepper and pre-sifted flour. Sprinkle it on and around your plants. Placing matches headfirst into the soil around your fern plants will keep worms off. Use 4 to 6, depending on the size of the fern.

7. Recycle old sandpaper disks in your garden to keep slugs off your plants. Cut them open to make a collar that can be slipped around your plant. Slugs won't cross over them. Also, to kill slugs and snails instantly sprinkle salt on them. The best time to find them out is at night.

8. And lastly, you do not want standing water around your home. This is where mosquitoes lay their eggs. Keep buckets, wagons and such upside down, or covered. If you can't get rid of the standing water, pour some dish soap in it. This will kill the eggs and larva.

PROUD TO BE SPONSORS

CLIPPER - COMMUNITY CHAMPION

Clipper has been based in West Dorset since it began in 1984, and as we've grown our local roots have always remained important to us. As an organisation we aim to make a difference by producing only Natural, Fair and Delicious hot drinks and that's why we are supporting the local champions awards. We want to recognise the people in our community who have made a real difference through their voluntary or charitable work.

BYPAT/BLAST - YOUNG CHAMPION

BLAST (Bridport Local Area Skills Training) and BYPAT (Bridport Young Persons Action Trust) are organisations created to give local young people, particularly those most in need of, the opportunity to achieve what they might not otherwise achieve in their lives and within their own community. We are pleased to sponsor the "VIEW's" initiative in recognising the contribution that the young can make to the well-being and positive development of our community.

Arthur Woodgate, Chair - BYPAT and BLAST

BRIDPORT LEISURE CENTRE - SPORTING CHAMPION

Bridport Leisure Centre are very happy to be sponsoring the View From West Dorset Local Champions Award - Sporting Champion category as this award offers the public the rare opportunity to vote for individuals who have served the local sporting community with dedication and commitment without recognition over the years.

MARINERS HOTEL - BUSINESS CHAMPION

They say that business makes the world go round. It certainly plays a big part in the community life of West Dorset with hundreds of small firms being the bedrock of our local economy. We believe that those who strive so hard to succeed in commerce, employing many thousands in our community, deserve to be recognised.

HIVE BEACH CAFE - EMERGENCY WORKER CHAMPION

Why is the Hive Beach Café supporting the Emergency Worker Award...

The Hive Beach Café is a family run business at the centre of the local village community who have recently been awarded the Family Business Award as part of the Dorset Business Awards.

Situated on the Jurassic Coast in this wonderful part of Dorset, the emergency services are regular passersby (and often pop in for coffee), either by road, air or sea.

We feel it's very important for the unsung heroes of our local communities to be recognised for their selfless and often tiring work. Thanks to these dedicated individuals, our local communities are safer, more relaxed and more enjoyable places to live and visit.

YARD - ARTS CHAMPION

At YARD we try to support young artisan designers in the ranges we sell. Therefore it seems worthwhile to sponsor the Arts Champion award, with which we are proud to be associated.

NANTES - SCHOOL CHAMPION

Nantes Solicitors are very pleased to be involved in this new initiative. There are scores of people who do go that extra mile to make the area a great place to live. This is an opportunity for us all to publicly recognise and acknowledge the contribution that they make to help our community be a better place. Nantes is proud to sponsor the School Champion. Education is the pivotal part in the lives of our children, not just for their own future prosperity but also for that of the area. Any pupil, teacher or ancillary worker who makes a difference should be recognised and applauded.

CREEDS PRINTERS - CHARITY CHAMPION

As a local family printing company involved in the community, Creeds are well aware of the huge number of people who are dedicated to helping others often less fortunate.

Unfortunately, many of the charitable organisations get no or little funding from the government, and are reliant on the support of members of the public who give their time freely and without recognition.

We are pleased to sponsor the Charity Champion award as a means of highlighting some of these many unsung heroes.

Struggling to make changes? Feeling bad about yourself? Anxious or depressed? Sometimes it seems something inside ourselves is working against us, on a subconscious level. Hypnotherapy can help you break out of the trap.

Whatever your problem, Hypnotherapy can get to the heart of it, settling you comfortably into a neutral, relaxed state, giving your mind the help it needs to make changes, naturally and effectively. You then clear the problems and any underlying causes that might otherwise cause future difficulties.

Used properly, modern hypnotherapy takes into account all aspects and treats you as an individual. Sometimes old experiences are relevant, but the over-analytical, regressive approach is no longer necessary with the modern techniques and greater understanding available to experienced therapist Susan Gale of the Beltain Centre in Dorchester.

A Registered Hypnotherapist, with a wide range of techniques at hand to solve problems as quickly as possible, she holds the Senior Qualification in Hypnotherapy Practice, and is a Member of the Institute of Natural Therapy.

Or perhaps you're thinking of studying hypnotherapy? Roger Sleet has trained many people for a more satisfying career.

Alternative relief for hay fever sufferers

Alternative relief for hay fever sufferers Homoeopaths are busy helping hay fever sufferers who want an alternative to conventional medication to ease their symptoms this coming summer. Between 15 and 20 per cent of the British population suffer from the often debilitating symptoms of pollen allergy, ranging from sneezing to itchy swollen eyes. Some of those turn to homoeopathy because they find that anti-histamines don't work well or have side effects, and others want an alternative to conventional drugs or a longer term solution to tackling their symptoms. A survey last year on behalf of Nelsons Pharmacy showed that 72 per cent of sufferers would prefer a natural alternative to anti-histamines and 79 per cent would like to access natural treatments on the NHS. The survey also found that 72 per cent said hay fever affected their ability to concentrate at work, with 11 per cent of those saying they were affected "a lot". Homoeopathic remedies can not only tackle the symptoms when they happen, but by triggering the body's own system of healing, can help to stop the symptoms occurring in the first place.

Homoeopath Pamela Rowlands, RSHom, explained: "Homoeopathy is a system of medicine which is based on treating the individual with highly diluted substances given in mainly tablet form, which triggers the body's natural system of healing. Based on their experience of their symptoms, a homoeopath will match the most appropriate medicine to the patient." A number of research trials into the use of homoeopathic remedies in the treatment of patients with hay fever have shown significant improvement in symptoms. It is recommended that a qualified and registered homoeopath (look out for the RSHom designation) is consulted as each sufferer will be treated according to their own individual combination of symptoms and how it affects them. Pamela is contactable on 01297 445378 and has practices in Lyme Regis and Poundbury.

* Bridport Leisure Centre

Bridport Leisure Centre as your best health club in the country!

Bridport Leisure Centre has joined the Health Club Awards which recognises the best value clubs based on research conducted through members around the country.

The scheme measures the quality of customer service and facilities provided by clubs by asking customers to rate the clubs they are members of.

As Simon Brown, MD of Awards for Business who own and run the scheme explains "Belonging to a good club is a rewarding experience. Members probably spend more time there than they realise and it's become an integral part of their lifestyle. Providing them with a haven from their frantic day to day existence and at the same time helping them to tackle life in a healthier, more productive way.

For the club it's not easy to get every aspect just right. It requires a lot of hard work and a belief that members should have a rewarding experience every time they visit.

Through the Health Club Awards we will find out which clubs are providing the most rewarding member experience. We will recognise those clubs for their excellence and ultimately find out which are providing the best experience and membership value across the country."

All Members will have to do is to complete the brief questionnaire either at the centre or online healthclubawards.com then once completed their name will be entered into a draw giving them the chance to WIN fantastic PRIZES –

- £1000 worth of Sport Equipment and clothing of their choice
- 3 month Price for Life Membership at Bridport Leisure Centre

Lin Hill, Membership & Marketing Co-ordinator said "We are very proud of the level of service we provide all our members. We believe we offer excellent value for money and this scheme is a great way to prove it."

Elephant Computers

Need IT support? Now help is at hand. Warrick Hill has launched Elephant Computer Solutions. Based in Bridport he offers free lance support to anyone in the area in need of help. Plus his flag ship service of bespoke database design would be useful to any small business or to the self employed. He has already worked with a local company providing all the IT support they need as well as advising them on how to get the best out of their software and hardware.

"I've always liked fixing and working on computers and so it seemed the natural choice to start my own business doing just that, and having grown up in Africa the name Elephant Computer Solutions felt right"

"The main service I can offer is really to build a bespoke Database. Some organizations could not run without it but they would have to look out of the local area to find a provider, which would be inconvenient and expensive. Now this valuable service is available here in West Dorset."

Lose weight quickly and safely with Lighter Life

Diane had always been heavy and by the time she had her two children she had had enough, she didn't want to be overweight any more and had simply tried and failed at every diet.

Diane decided to join the LighterLife Weight-Loss and Weight-Management programme and was astonished to find that in only five short months she dropped an incredible six dress sizes from a 22 to a size 10.

Through the use of nutritionally balanced soups, shakes and bars, Diane was able to lose weight quickly, safely and maintain that weight-loss. The Great British Barbershop Boys are Bridport bound

IN October 2010 Sony Music announced the signing of a £1 Million pound record deal for the most original form of boy band – a barbershop quartet. One of the first signings to the newly reformed Arista records, the home of two of the best-selling boy bands ever, N-Sync and Backstreet Boys, these four young (all under 25 years) unlikely pop stars, have signed the most unique deal that will see them receive an extra £1 Million pound 'tip' when the album sells platinum.

After being signed, The Great British Barbershop Boys soon released their debut album 'Christmas Time' on 6 December 2010. A collection of classic Christmas songs rearranged to perfectly suit the unique and memorable barbershop sound, the album rediscovered the distinctive sound of barbershop quartets, recognised as the earliest form of boy band.

Since then, the Boys have had a steam of TV and radio appearances including ITN News, Daybreak, This Morning, Alan Titchmarsh Show, The Wright Stuff, Weekend Wogan, Steve Wright and the BBC 2 Ruth Jones Christmas Special.

Their enthusiasm, singing and high quality performances have also seen the Quartet requested for live appearances live at St Paul's Cathedral for the BBC 2 Young Chorister Of The Year, Wembley Stadium to open a UK rugby match and for the famous Saturday Night at the London Palladium.

Making up the Barbershop Boys are Alan Hughes (tenor), Zac Booles (lead), Joe Knight (baritone) and Duncan Blackbeby (bass). They also hold the title of the British Quartet champions and inaugural British Collegiate Quartet and represent Britain in the US for the international competition.

An amazing group of four young men with the most outstanding voices, do not miss seeing them live at Bridport's Electric Palace on Monday, April 18th. Ticket are £10 standard /£9 senior citizens, Friends and under 25s and are on sale now from Bridport Tourist Information Centre 01308 424901

Concert celebrates some of Mozart's best loved works

ON Saturday, April 2nd 2011 at 7.30pm at Holy Trinity Church, Weymouth Choral Society will present a concert celebrating several of the best loved works of the great composer, Mozart – the Vesperae Solennes de Confessore, the Clarinet Concerto in A major, and the Requiem Mass in D minor.

The Vesperae Solennes de Confessore was written in 1780, during a period in Mozart's life when music for the church formed a major part of his output. The Vespers contain the Laudate Dominum for soprano soloist, perhaps one of Mozart's most memorably beautiful melodies. You will also recognise several themes in the exquisite Clarinet Concerto in A major. The soloist in this piece is a young and gifted musician, Joy Boole, who is currently studying Clarinet at the Guildhall School of Music and Drama.

The final and major work in this concert will be the Requiem which, like the Clarinet Concerto, was written in the last year of Mozart's life, 1791. There are many myths and controversies surrounding the work, especially how much of it was actually completed by Mozart before his death. These unknown factors somehow add to the impact of this dramatic and intense music.

Weymouth Choral Society will be joined by four professional solo singers and the Wessex Sinfonia orchestra in this programme featuring the mastery of Mozart. The society hopes that you will join them for an evening of music which will take you through a gamut of emotions: the heavenly lyricism of the Laudate Dominum; the contrasting moods of melancholy and playfulness in the Clarinet Concerto; and the dark intensity of the opening bars of the Requiem.

Ticket: £10 (free for under 16's) Available from Weymouth TIC, on the door, or tel: 01305 775644 or e-mail: weymouthchoral@btinternet.com

Please visit www.weymouthchoralsociety.org.uk for more information about Weymouth Choral or join them on Facebook.

WHERE ART MEETS SCIENCE WITH JOHN MAKEPEACE

ON Monday, March 14th, the Electric Palace in Bridport will be screening Essays In Wood, a film commissioned by The Devon Guild of Craftsmen to be a part of an exhibition about the highly honoured English furniture designer and maker John Makepeace.

The exhibition, 'Enriching the Language of Furniture' is the maker's first solo show, covering work from 50 years at the forefront of British design. The show will tour to leading venues in England and Scotland and the screening in Bridport is programmed to coincide with the exhibition at Somerset House in London.

Inspired early on by Danish designers, the young Makepeace built his own workshop and soon earned national acclaim, winning design competition entries. He gained international renown in the 1970s for an educational programme pioneered at Parnham College which integrated teaching of fine craftsmanship in wood with design and entrepreneurship.

Through the 1980s and '90s, while directing Parnham College and running his own studio, Makepeace began to address some of forestry's most pressing economic concerns. Having been able to buy a 350-acre forest, named Hooke Park, Makepeace brought together foresters, chemists, material scientists, structural engineers and designers to research and develop sustainable new technologies and building methods and the award-winning buildings at the Hooke Park campus are proof of his successful collaborations.

A discussion between Andrew Poore, an award winning forestry consultant, and John Makepeace about the problems of forestry development, timber production and its long term sustainability, biodiversity, sustainability, the use of natural resources – sun, water, earth – the growing of quality timber and more will take place after the screening.

Doors open at 6.45pm for a 7.30pm screening. Tickets are £6 and can be purchased on the evening. For more information please visit www.electricpalace.org.uk or call 01308 428354

Weymouth author's book selling well

GETTING their book published is the dream of many unknown writers.

But the reality is that many a good manuscript is rejected simply because publishers receive so many.

So more and more writers are publishing their own books. Among them is Weymouth author J D Wilson whose first novel is selling very well – for an unknown writer – in Serendip bookshop Lyme Regis, and Paragon Books, Sidmouth.

"The trials and tribulations of finding out how to get a novel published privately are a headache," admits Wilson. "But as long as a writer is prepared not to make any profit from their book, but just wants to see it take its chance in the bookshops, I would not put them off."

Wilson would like to know if any local book club or similar club would like to hear him talk about his book publishing venture. "Not a stand-up talk, more a chat over a cup of tea," he says.

JD Wilson's book is entitled Love Songs Tell You Lies and is on sale in Serendip Books, Lyme Regis, and also in Waterstones, Bridport.

You can find out more about the book by visiting www.lovesongstellioulies.co.uk

Poetry for Pleasure

by Frank McGarry

IN 1923, Dublin-born William Butler Yeats became the first Irish recipient of the Nobel Prize for Literature "for his inspired poetry, which in a highly artistic form gives expression to the spirit of a whole nation". Yeats published hundreds of poems, dozens of which are well-known favourites, such as, "The Second Coming", "Lake of Innisfree", "When you are Old" etc. – so it is not easy to choose which to include here. Please forgive me if I haven't included your favourite.

THE SONG OF WANDERING AENGUS

I went out to the hazel wood,
Because a fire was in my head,
And cut and peeled a hazel wand,
And hooked a berry to a thread;
And when white moths were on the wing,
And moth-like stars were flickering out,
I dropped the berry in a stream
And caught a little silver trout.
When I had laid it on the floor
I went to blow the fire a flame,
But something rustled on the floor,
And some one called me by my name:
It had become a glimmering girl
With apple blossom in her hair
Who called me by my name and ran
And faded through the brightening air.
Though I am old with wandering
Through hollow lands and hilly lands,
I will find out where she has gone,
And kiss her lips and take her hands;

And walk among long dappled grass,
And pluck till time and times are done
The silver apples of the moon,
The golden apples of the sun.

If you ever go across the sea to Ireland you may have the opportunity to visit the Coole Park Nature Reserve in County Galway. In Yeats' day this was the home of Lady Augusta Gregory, a co-founder with Yeats of Dublin's Abbey Theatre. It was also, of course, the inspiration for this poem.

WILD SWANS AT COOLE

The trees are in their autumn beauty,
The woodland paths are dry,
Under the October twilight the water
Mirrors a still sky;
Upon the brimming water among the stones
Are nine-and-fifty Swans.
The nineteenth autumn has come upon me
Since I first made my count;
I saw, before I had well finished,
All suddenly mount
And scatter wheeling in great broken rings
Upon their clamorous wings.
I have looked upon those brilliant creatures,
And now my heart is sore.
All's changed since I, hearing at twilight,
The first time on this shore,
The bell-beat of their wings above my head,
Trod with a lighter tread.

Unwearied still, lover by lover,
They paddle in the cold
Companionable streams or climb the air;
Their hearts have not grown old;
Passion or conquest, wander where they will,
Attend upon them still.

But now they drift on the still water,
Mysterious, beautiful;
Among what rushes will they build,
By what lake's edge or pool
Delight men's eyes when I awake some day
To find they have flown away?

Yeats died in France early in 1939 and was buried there. After the war his body was moved to Drumcliffe, County Sligo, which was his childhood home.

HE WISHES FOR THE CLOTHS OF HEAVEN

Had I the Heaven's embroidered cloths,
Enwrought with golden and silver light,
The blue and the dim and the dark cloths
Of night and light and the half-light,
I would spread the cloths under your feet;
Tread softly because you tread on my dreams.

Lady Sings The Blues

Concert celebrates the incredible songs of Billie Holiday

ALONGSIDE Marilyn Monroe and James Dean, Billie Holiday is one of the great American popular icons, their names immortalised by their premature and tragic deaths. This fascination with Billie has created an insatiable demand for her work.

Originally conceived as a feature concert in the 1987 Birmingham International Jazz Festival, Lady Sings The Blues appeals to a wider audience than most other jazz concerts. The current interest in Billie Holiday is colossal - manifested in the constant use of her voice to sell products on TV, her still-impressive record sales and the constant flow of books about her life.

Lady Sings The Blues provides a unique opportunity to hear her music as Billie would have performed it on stage. It is the closest any of us will ever get to being present at a performance by the greatest jazz singer of all time.

The combination of a great jazz singer, world-class soloists and the wonderful Billie Holiday song-book has consistently proved Lady Sings The Blues to be a crowd-pleaser from the top drawer.

This is no ordinary concert, but a lovingly-created tribute to the finest of all jazz singers, performed brilliantly, movingly and sensitively by an exceptional group of award-winning musicians and a most remarkable jazz singer."

The two hour concert show (plus intermission) parades some thirty songs from the wonderful Billie Holiday repertoire, including many that are all-too-frequently ignored. They are presented chronologically through the 30s, 40s and 50s, many featuring the original arrangements, and performed with so much style and vitality that you might almost be there.

"Lady Sings The Blues is a tribute to the memory of Billie Holiday in the best possible way - presenting the songs she sang, in the style of her period. It is not a play. Neither is it a documentary, nor a slavish recreation of Billie's original recordings, but an evening with seven of Europe's finest musicians and a most remarkable jazz singer."

LYME Regis used to enjoy a good Beer Festival in the 1600s to raise cash for the Cobb upkeep, and the festivities would last for days on end. Eventually the Puritans put an end to all the fun, so Lyme has waited a long time for this!

The Riverside

Restaurant

WEST BAY, Bridport

The reputation of the Riverside over the last 50 years has been built on providing diners with good food, good service and a good time.

Whether it is a celebration, a romantic meal for two or simply a meal out with family and friends [children welcome], it is the aim of the whole Riverside team to give you an enjoyable and stimulating dining experience in an atmosphere that puts you, the customer, first!

What the Diners say:

Over the years the Riverside has been recognised as a quality restaurant by both the local and national press. Hilary Spurling wrote a very complimentary article in the Daily Telegraph some 20 years ago and the Riverside became somewhat overwhelmed with customers. The Riverside has been in the Good Food Guide for 20 years and the Michelin Guide for almost as long. The Hardens Guide gives them one of its top ratings and in 2010 they received once again the Taste of Dorset's Restaurant Gold Award; these are both based on customer feedback which in the end is the reward that is most valued.

...this popular riverside café remains a favourite, thanks to its combination of "simple but excellent" fish, "the nicest people" and its "light, bright and totally unfussy setting"

www.hardens.com/riverside.htm

"An extensive, interesting and varied menu ...the fish was superb..."

What a find! ...it was so good we went back for a second visit. A family-owned restaurant providing a friendly, informal ambience in a light and airy setting overlooking the river. Service was fast, efficient and friendly. An extensive, interesting and varied menu. Not only was the fish superb (and our meat eater had a great steak), and the portions good, but the desserts were excellent. ... We had two really enjoyable evenings at the Riverside and look forward to returning.

2010 Review on www.viamichelin.co.uk

"...excellent fresh seafood bought from local fishermen"

A great advert for local food ... grilled mackerel fillets with salsa verde, crab linguine, Lyme Bay lobster with parsley butter, baked turbot with mild mustard and lemon sauce, whole roast sea bream with sea salt and thyme.

Salway Ash Fashion
Sale set to wow

THE Fashion Sale being held at Salway Ash village hall on March 12th 2011 from 10.30am is set to wow discerning customers by having a wide range of clothing and accessories to buy.

Traders who have signed up are selling new and original jewellery, new and nearly new women's clothes and shoes as well as clothes for men and Children.

In this current economic climate it's good to grab a bargain and have a relaxing time in the process.

Organiser, Rachel Brown, says "the great thing about these sales is that people can search for bargains on their doorstep without trawling through internet auction sites and, of course, the items can be seen and tried on there and then".

With only a limited amount of rails left to hire out, this event should be a successful one for both buyers and sellers.

Admission to buyers is just 50p. If you would like to book a clothes rail then call Rachel on 07779 593351.

LONDON CLASSIC THEATRE TO PERFORM AFTER MISS JULIE

LONDON Classic Theatre present After Miss Julie, a version of Strindberg's Miss Julie by Patrick Marber at Bridport Arts Centre on Friday, March 18th at 7.30pm.

Set in July 1945, at a country house near London, celebrations for the Labour Party's landslide election victory are in full swing. The lady of the house, Miss Julie, descends into the servants' kitchen to seek out John, her father's chauffeur. As the night draws in and flirtation turns to passion, the two lovers embark on a consuming and deadly dance of desire.

Sex, class and ambition battle for centre stage as Patrick Marber relocates Strindberg's brutal, sensual love story to post-war England.

Marber's first play, Dealer's Choice, opened at the National Theatre in February 1995, and won the Evening Standard Award for Best Comedy. His other plays include Howard Katz, Don Juan in Soho and Closer, which also won the Evening Standard Award for Best Comedy, as well as the Critics' Circle Theatre Award and Laurence Olivier Award for Best New Play.

In 2004 he adapted his play Closer for the screen. It won and was shortlisted for several awards. He has since adapted Patrick McGrath's Asylum and Zoe Heller's Notes on a Scandal for the screen. He has also written screenplays for the films The Tourist, and Alan Partridge: The Movie.

Tickets for After Miss Julie are available from the Bridport Arts Centre box office on 01308 424204, or online at www.bridport-arts.com, priced £12, £11 members and £8 conc.

The show contains strong language and sexual themes, and is therefore recommended for 16+.

Beautiful detached period house with original features

Prestige Homes

GREEN Bay is a well proportioned detached period house built in 1912 by a local builder. Over the last few years it has been updated and lovingly maintained by the present owners and is a fantastic example of a house that has managed to hold on to its original features for nearly a hundred years. These include herringbone parquet flooring in the reception areas, Art Nouveau and Arts & Crafts style fireplaces, doors and handles, cornicing and picture rails. The property is situated in a quiet sought after road in an elevated position above the town and enjoys delightful views across the town to the sea, Jurassic Coast, Axe Estuary and countryside.

The property is arranged over three floors and is a fantastic family home. The accommodation is also easily adaptable and could, by closing the landing connecting door on the landing, provide an office suite, annexe for a relative, a teen suite or even a holiday let - it's all possible depending on your needs.

On the ground floor is the reception hall, two main reception rooms, study / bedroom 6 with en suite bathroom, kitchen / breakfast room, 2nd kitchen/utility room and annexe reception room/office. The first floor offers the master bedroom with large en suite shower room, 3 further bedrooms, bathroom and shower room. On the 2nd floor is bedroom 5 and a door to the walk-in loft space.

Outside, the property benefits from a large garage/workshop and plenty of parking. The garden areas are mainly laid to lawn, with mature trees and shrubs, giving Green Bay a good degree of privacy.

Benefits include double glazing and gas heating system. The services connected are mains gas, electric, water and drains. The council tax is band G.

SAINTS CHALLENGE FOR BEAMINSTER

● Netherbury hit for six ● Seasideers stun Winsham

CHALLENGE CUP Semi-Finals

Beaminster 5 Perry Street 0
BEAMINSTER manager Sean Annetts was 'far from pleased' despite seeing his team reach the Final of the Challenge Cup.

"Dave Ellis (Perry Street manager) must be scratching his head as to how his team were beaten. We must do much better next week against Fern-down Greenfields if we are to make the Dorset Intermediate Final" he added.

Street created the better chances in the first-half but, thanks in no small way to the efforts of Rainbows' keeper Adam Herring, trooped off trailing 2-0.

The first goal arrived Richie Runyard's third successful penalty kick in as many games after Murray Legg had been felled in the area. Legg added a second before the break for the distinctly rusty-looking hosts.

Legg scored again soon after the restart with the pick of the goals – a crisp low drive into the bottom corner for his 13th goal of the season and eighth in four games.

The place in the Final was confirmed when substitute Tom Fletcher netted number four. And another sub, 16-year-old Josh Baker, rounded-off the nap-hand five minutes from time.

South Petherton 0 Combe Res 1

BEAMINSTER'S opponents in Good Friday's Final at Forton will be Combe Reserves whose 1-0 win at South Petherton will have sent shock waves throughout the Perry Street League.

Despite three back-to-back wins for the improving Saints, Pethy went into the game no doubt full of confidence having put six past their opponents in their last three meetings.

But past history can count for little and so it proved as Steve Every netted the winner deep into the second-half of extra time.

Quarter-final

Uplyme 4 Beaminster Reserves 1

THERE was another similar cup shock at Venlake where Beaminster Reserves' eight game unbeaten run that stretched back to early November was obliterated by an Uplyme side clearly pumped up by the incentive of a cup Final on neighbours' Lyme Regis' Davey Fort ground.

The hosts flew out of the traps and were ahead in the 10th minute when Alex Cottle was fouled in the area – referee Pete Lowe pointed to the spot and Gavin Fowler did the rest.

Fowler struck again with a rasping long-range effort that took his personal tally for the season through the 20-goal mark.

The second-half began in similar fashion to the first. Teenager Adam Neale that was upended in the box. Referee Lowe correctly pointed to the spot for a second time. This time, despite Fowler being on a hat-trick, it was midfielder Stuart King who calmly slotted home the penalty.

"Having seen the first penalty Gav (Fowler) felt the Beaminster 'keeper might have guessed which way he would go with the second so Stuart took on the responsibility" explained Uplyme manager Rob Coombe who saw his team end a three-game losing run.

The game and the result was effectively over in the 70th minute when Alex Cottle shock-off the attentions of his marker before bursting to the by-line where he produced the perfect cross for the industrious James Beddows to head home at the far post.

The visitors did bag a late consolation to ruin Uplyme 'keeper Lloyd Cleal's hopes of a clean sheet.

Coombe was understandably overjoyed by the result, he said: "That was by far the best performance since I took over back in December – the whole team was superb, we really wanted it today."

"But were not in the final yet and will certainly will not be taking Chard Rangers for granted in the semi-final."

ILMINSTER Town Reserves ran up their biggest score in more than six years as Misterton were crushed 9-4 at the Rec'.

Marcus Partridge (2), Tim Hooker and Will Brook scored for Missy who had a real day to forget.

DIVISION ONE

Charmouth 1 Forton Rangers 3

A GOOD performance in the opening 20 minutes failed to lead to a goal for Charmouth and Forton Rangers took full advantage.

It was 2-0 at the interval and a third goal 20 minutes from time meant the points were destined for South Somerset.

There was one bright spot for the hosts five minutes from time when Dan Rendall picked-out 17-year-old Owen Newbury who bagged his first goal for the club.

Lyme Regis Res 3 Winsham Utd 1

ON a day of shocks there was another one at the Davey Fort where lowly Lyme Regis Reserves stunned promotion-chasing Winsham United with a classy performance that thoroughly warranted a superb 3-1 victory.

The Seasideers took the lead in the seventh minute when youngster Jack Durrant surged onto a perfectly weighted pass by Danny Thirlwell before drilling home a fierce low drive that zipped past Winsham gloveman Chris Scott.

The visitors were almost level within a minute. Top scorer Tom Stead angled a shot that appeared to be creeping into the far corner but for a finger-tip save by Will Meech.

The equaliser came on the stroke of half-time Lyme only half cleared their lines from a corner and when the ball broke to Darren Spurdle in the D the ex-Chard Town midfielder cracked a low shot through a crowd of bodies that gave Meech no chance.

The second-half began with the impressive Harvey Brimicombe being denied by a fine save from Scott before striker Jason Hawker headed over when well placed, but it proved to be a sighter for the experienced number nine.

Midway through the half The Seasideers edged ahead when Aaron Cleal chased down an apparently lost cause before crossing low to Hawker who despite not making the cleanest of contacts did enough to notch his second Reserve team goal of the season. The points were in the bag five minutes later.

Cleal was sliced down near the corner of the penalty area and when Thirlwell curled a delightful free-kick there was Hawker who shook off his marker and rose well before powerfully heading past Scott and into the net.

With the points slipping from their fingers Winsham attempted to mount a fight-back. Meech did well to deny Tom Symes and Stead remained a threat.

But their hopes of a share of the spoils and a return to the top spot were ended when Tim Break received a second yellow card from referee Tom Richardson 15 minutes from time and the Seasideers cruised home.

Netherbury 0 Millway Rise 6

"NO complaints – we were totally outplayed" was Netherbury manager Andy Loudon's assessment as he saw his side thrashed by fellow title-chasers Millway Rise.

Adam Whitehouse (3), Nathan Wormesley, John Vaughan and Sam Dibling, giving him 25 for the season, scored for the Devonians.

The result looks to have ended the Ambers hopes of promotion with Loudon adding that the performance was the worst he had seen in 12 years with the club.

TOP scorer Matt Read's 15th and 16th goals of the season ensured Waytown Hounds' promotion hopes remained firmly on track with a 3-1 win at Barrington Reserves.

Read opened the scoring from the penalty spot but the hosts were level before the interval.

Read restored the lead and a superb late free-kick from Mike Whitbread completed a sixth straight win for the Hounds who remain third in the table.

Gary Mansfield was manager Mark Hughes' selection of Man-of-the-Match.

WEST DORSET FOOTBALL

WITH STUART BROOM

Bridport promotion hopes dented

Terras ease past Bees to final

BRIDPORT 1 WEYMOUTH 3 DORSET SENIOR CUP SEMI-FINAL

THREE scintillating second-half goals saw Weymouth ease past Bridport into the final of the Dorset Senior Cup.

After a first-half that saw a sluggish Terras out battled by Bridport, they came alive after the break and won the tie with three quality goals.

Only five of the Weymouth squad who played against Hemel Hempstead, including keeper Nick Jordan who was a doubt, started with manager Martyn Rogers resting a lot of his first team and giving opportunities to fringe players, whilst Bridport were without the sick Chris Senior.

Neither Jordan or his opposite number Sam Filkins were troubled in the first quarter of the match with both sides battling it out in midfield, but a poor back pass from Ben Gerring on 23 minutes saw Ryan Dovell beat Jordan to the ball but he lifted his shot not only over the keeper but also the bar.

Weymouth had a great chance to take the lead on 31 minutes from the penalty spot. Alex Halloran's initial shot from the edge of the box was blocked but as he picked up the rebound he was brought down by Bees skipper Darren Lock. However Filkins brought off a superb save; diving to his left he got his right hand to Jamie Beasley's well struck shot and it rebounded to safety.

Lock made amend six minutes later when he headed Bridport into the lead. Dan Wise's right sided corner evaded everyone, but Jamie Symes collected it and provided the perfect cross for the unmarked Lock to steer a looping header into the left corner from 12 yards.

Weymouth almost equalised four minutes from the break. Mitch Conning cut along the byline but Filkins managed to stick out his leg to deflect it away from goal to Halloran who blasted over from the edge of the box.

Weymouth came out much more confidence after the break, and equalised on 54 minutes through Stephen Reed, who pulled the strings in the Terras midfield and had a great battle all evening with Darren Watts.

Ollie Tribe, another of the Weymouth successes, drove down the right before pulling the ball back to Reed who thumped a magnificent 25-yard left footed shot high into the top right corner.

This put Bridport on the back foot, and they almost scored again immediately when Beasley, subject of seven day notice of approach by Dorchester, jinked in along the byline. However Filkins once again produced a first class save when he tipped Tribe's close range side foot from the cross over the bar.

Dan Peart was unlucky when his 25-yard shot was blocked at the other end but Weymouth were not to be denied, and they went ahead on the hour. Jordan's kick downfield was superbly controlled by Conning who in one movement swivelled and hit a looping left foot volley from 22 yards which gave Filkins no chance.

Sam Charles then fired just wide after good work by Conning before the striker put in Beasley, but Filkins was quick off his line to save with his legs.

Tribe got his reward for a good performance when he sealed the win on 67 minutes. John Litherland's shot was charged down but Tribe was on it like a flash to hammer the ball high into the same corner as Reed's effort.

Despite Trevor Senior introducing Shane Evans and Ashley Clark, Bridport never got back into the game, and it drifted to an inevitable conclusion although a late 25 yard effort from Wise drifted over the bar, before Beasley having beaten three players in a mazy run, shanked his shot wildly wide of goal.

The win would have been a boost for Rogers before his side resume their relegation battle at Banbury at the weekend, whilst Senior would have been pleased with his side's first half display against a side three rungs up the league ladder.

Rogers said after the game: "I was quite disappointed in our first half display; I don't think we got on the ball and passed it as well as I wanted. We changed the system a little bit in the second half and I thought we were so much better. I thought we controlled it for long periods and scored three great goals. I was really pleased.

"Okay we rested several players ahead of Saturday because as far as far as the club is concerned our league status is more important, but having said that at the end of the day it's a semi-final, and it was imperative that we gave a good display, and I thought we did that in the second-half.

"I was quite pleased with Mitch Conning's performance; he showed up really well; Reedy in places was really strong, and Ben Gerring was decent, but there were a lot of steady performances without being outstanding. I thought we knocked it around quite nicely in the second-half."

"It would be nice to keep a couple of those goals for the weekend!"

Toolstation League Division One - Att: 402

DORCHESTER won this bruising battle against fellow strugglers Thurrock, with Chris Flood nabbing a second half brace to ensure the Magpies first win for five matches.

Dorchester had failed to score in their previous four games despite some battling performances, and in doing so slipped dangerously towards the Blue Square Bet South relegation positions, but this win has lifted the county town five points clear of danger.

Despite going a goal down early on, the Magpies showed the fighting qualities required as they hit back to win comfortably.

Manager Ashley Vickers retained his place in the centre of defence, allocating suspension free Gary Bowles a midfield holding role which he carried off very well against a big, physical Thurrock side. Vickers also switched striker Reece Connolly to the right wing, swooping places with Flood.

Kenny Clark took advantage of an error by Jake Smeeton to drill the ball under Dan Thomas to give Thurrock a sixth minute lead, but Dorchester hit back and Flood was just wide with a shot after beating two defenders.

They drew level on 14 minutes when Thurrock failed to clear Steve Devlin's corner, and Flood crossed for Aldershot loanee Reece Connolly to glance a header wide of Joe Woolley for his first goal for the club.

From then on it was mainly one way traffic as Dorchester relentlessly drove forward with Devlin and Ryan Moss going close and Flood firing over just as halftime approached.

Dorchester continued to dominate after the break, and deservedly went ahead on the hour when Thurrock's defence were caught out thinking Moss was offside as he ran back from an offside position.

However the striker ignored skipper Mark Jermyn's through ball, allowing Flood to run through unchallenged and lift the ball over Woolley.

The Magpies were coping well with the Fleet's aggressive approach, and a neat one-two saw Connolly in on goal from Flood's pass, but Woolley blocked his effort.

However the duo combined again three minutes from the end when Connolly's run down the right gave Flood the opportunity to beat Wolley for his second of the game.

Bizarre evening ends in defeat

HAVANT & WATERLOOVIEW 3 DORCHESTER TOWN 1

Monday, March 7th - Toolstation League Division One
THE bizarre dismissal of Dorchester Town manager Ashley Vickers was the prelude to the Magpies third defeat this season at Westleigh Park on Monday which also saw Jake Smeeton and Kyle Critchell also sent off in the final minutes leaving the county town with eight players.

When a mankini-wearing streaker ran on to the pitch midway through the second half after evading the stewards, the 38-year-old defender brought him down only to only to be sensationally red-carded for doing so.

The game was finely balanced then at 1-1 and the Hawks took advantage of their extra man when former Maggie Wes Fogden struck on 77 minutes following up a rebound after Dan Thomas had spilled Steve Ramsey's long-range effort.

Smeeton was then dismissed following a clash of heads with Giuseppe Sole before Critchell followed him for dissent when asking the linesman the reason. Ramsey then rubbed salt into the wounds of the remaining eight by grabbing a third in injury time.

The game had started well for Dorchester who controlled the first half and they took the lead on nine minutes when Steve Devlin's superb 25-yard dipping drive over home keeper Nathan Ashmore.

Mustafa Tiriyaki who replaced striker Manny Williams in the first half put the Hawks level on the hour with an equally spectacular shot from 25-yards that went in off the post.

However the referees decision to dismiss Vickers turned the game and left Dorchester rueing the consequences.

Weymouth lose their way

BANBURY UNITED 3 WEYMOUTH 0

WEYMOUTH gave an inept display at Banbury United that sees their task of avoiding relegation that much harder. Once again the Terras failed to gain ground on their fellow strugglers who had not won for eight games, as they conceded three sloppy goals.

Missing striker Jamie Mudge through illness and Sam Clarke with an injury sustained in the Dorset Senior Cup semi-final against Bridport midweek, manager Martyn Rogers options were limited.

Although Jamie Beasley produced the first real shot on goal, Banbury went ahead after 13 minutes when Declan Benjamin was brought down in the box by Nick Jacobs and Robbie Maddox scored low to Nick Jordan's left.

Although Adam Leary headed wide of an open goal on 35 minute, it looked like the Terras would only go in one down at the break, but Banbury struck with just a minute of the half remaining.

David Stone played the ball down the right to Benjamin who cut inside and as Jordan advanced passed the ball across the six-yard box for the unmarked Jack Ashton.

It was much the same in the second-half, although if Byerley's early goalbound shot had not been blocked by Leary, things may have been different. As it was Banbury killed the game on 55 minutes when Stone set Henry Rose free to lift the ball over the advancing Jordan for his first league goal.

BRIDPORT 1 ALMONDSBURY UWE 3

Toolstation League Division One - Att: 105

BRIDPORT'S promotion hopes stuttered with this home defeat against Almondsbury UWE who completed the double having beaten the Bees 2-0 back in November, and once again it was the Almonds top scorer Simon McElroy who did the damage.

He put the visitors ahead three minutes before the break and then added a second nine minutes into the second-half that left Bridport chasing the game.

Manager Trevor Senior reinstated his son Chris into the centre of defence after missing the Dorset Senior Cup semi-final through illness, and included Sam Charles, on a month's loan from Weymouth, to spearhead the attack with Ryan Dovell.

Both sides looked for dominance in the opening minutes and Dovell had a shot blocked before keeper Chris Coles was forced to turn Matt Condillie's 25-yard effort over the bar.

McElroy responded with a long range effort before he put his side ahead with half-time approaching when Wayne Pearce's pass found him and he cut inside to beat Sam Filkins with a superb strike from 12 yards.

Charles had a great chance to level things inside the first minute of the restart when he was put clear. However after rounding the keeper the ball got stuck under his foot and Coles managed to retrieve the situation.

Almondsbury were contributing to an exciting match and they went close again before McElroy struck again; this time firing home from 15 yards. With Bridport having to chase the game, the Almonds scored again just after the hour when Adam Saunders converted a third.

Dovell was unlucky three minutes later when his shot following a great run and cross from Jamie Symes, came back off the underside of the crossbar, before Coles saved well from substitute Dan Wise.

Charles pulled one back for the Bees eight minutes from time when he scored from an acute angle from skipper Darren Lock's pass.

The defeat, the fifth at home out of seven this season saw the Bees stay in fourth, but with Oldland Abbotonians only drawing and Devizes Town losing, only minimal damage was done to their chances of promotion.

Gale double lifts Bees

MERLEY COBHAM SPORTS 1 BRIDPORT RESERVES 2

A DOUBLE from Tristan Gale saw Bridport Reserves overcome a Merley side buoyed by the 5-1 defeat of Sherborne Town Reserves just three days earlier.

After a fairly even opening 20 minutes the hosts took the lead when Lee Cleal was given no chance when Adam Light was put through.

Bridport slowly fought their way back in to the game, and they equalised just before the break when Tristan Gale was at the far post to score after a great run and cross down the left by Chris Herbst.

Bridport took control of the game in the second-half and Gale sealed the points with a second goal on the hour, this time converting Carl Bulman's cross after the midfielder had won three superb challenges down the right hand side.

Unfortunately Gary Bulman was sent off in the dying seconds for a second yellow card; both for dissent.

Joint manager Steve Crabb said: "It was a good win particularly after their great result against Sherborne. The first-half was fairly even and the 1-1 scoreline was a fair reflection at half-time, but we were the better side after the break.

"It was great to see Tristan get the reward his hard work deserves with the goals, and our back three of Richard Pincombe, Sam Day and Ash Clarke were superb.

Easy win sees Thirds back on track

BRIDPORT THIRDS 4 CORFE MULLEN 1

BRIDPORT Thirds playing their first game for a month eased back into the season with an easy win over Corfe Castle at St Mary's Playing Field. In a fairly one-sided match, the Bees were three up at the break, and should have won by far more but became complacent after the interval.

Gino Scovell gave them an early lead to which a visiting defender added a second soon after with a thumping header past his own keeper from Chris Symes' superb cross.

Chris Gale's goal just before the break meant there was no way back for the visitors, and it looked like the Bees would win by a hatful.

Martin Bulman added a fourth early in the second-half after beating two players, with Corfe pulling a goal back from a free-kick in the dying seconds following a dubious decision against Ash Walkey.

Joint manager Ian Pincombe felt his side were complacent and wasteful in the second-half and should have won more comfortably.

"Having not played for a month it was the ideal match to play ourselves back in, but we really did get complacent after the interval and missed a lot of chances."

Pincombe was pleased with new signing Connor Falvey who made his debut at right back and also Jake Williams playing his first game back after injury.

"Connor looks a useful player and did well and looks our kind of player whilst it was good to see Jake back, and he had a great game."

There was also good news that striker Colin Paull who has been sidelined for a number of weeks with a knee injury has been given the go ahead by the specialist to resume in two weeks.

Bridport Wanderers U12 Longfleet Youth 1

WITH a number of positional changes it took Bridport a few minutes to settle but they soon started to play some great football and took the lead through Ben Joy, but then lost concentration from the kick-off to allow Longfleet to equalise.

However with midfield controlling the game and supplying the strikers they soon led again with Liam Tuck chipping the keeper. Adam Halford, who continues to improve each week, increased their lead with a strike from the edge of the box into the bottom right hand corner before halftime.

Bridport dominated the second-half despite several substitutions, and Michael Hill scored twice; the first a chip over the keeper and the second a shot into the bottom corner.

Man of the match was Liam Tuck, normally a defender who played up front as a lone striker.

Manager Anthony Lockley said "This is the third win in a row and it is giving the team the confidence they need. They always play great football with strength and maturity but always seem to lose it in the last ten minutes.

"These last few games have seen their fitness levels improve and the fight for a win become stronger. I am very proud of them all and the new boys have fitted in really well too."

WEYMOUTH COUGARS 3 BRIDPORT WANDERERS 1

BRIDPORT Wanderers travelled to Weymouth looking to carry on the winning streak of the last few matches, but unfortunately it was not to be.

The Wanderers produced some good football in the first-half on a very uneven surface where the midfield played some good football and lone striker Liam Tuck was unlucky not to score as first-half finished goalless.

However lack of concentration and poor control by a few in the second-half, saw Weymouth take a two goal lead before Tuck pulled one back ten minutes from time following some good work by man-of-the-match Michael Hill. Weymouth hit back however to score a decisive third goal.

WEYMOUTH TERRAS 2 BRIDPORT YOUTH U13 5

BRIDPORT Youth replaced Weymouth Terras at the top of the leagues following their recent convincing win over their rivals.

Bridport dominated the game with some slick passing and movement and took the lead on ten minutes when Liam Sayers scored with a 35 yard thunderbolt into the top corner.

Rhys Hayter who bossed the midfield with Lewis Middleton, capped a fine display with a fine 25-yard curling free-kick to double the advantage.

Weymouth pulled a goal back with a dubious penalty; the ball appearing to have struck Middleton in the face rather than on the hand; before equalising in a rare attack just before the interval.

However Owen Ward headed the visitors ahead again from Hayter's corner soon after the break, before Cain Lydon set up Sayers for a fourth with a driving run and smart finish.

Despite playing into the wind, Bridport's defence held firm although keeper Joe Mace McKenney had to make a great save from a free kick.

The game was sealed when sub Jon Paul Avery followed in a Ward shot to score the fifth.

BRIDPORT YOUTH U13 3 PARKSTONE HEIGHTS 1

BRIDPORT'S Under 13s continued their great form which has seen them go top of the league after winning eight of their last nine games with a hard fought victory at St Mary's on Sunday.

Parkstone Heights pushed Bridport all the way but a resolute defensive display and a man-of-the-match performance from goalkeeper Joe Mace McKenney ensured three points.

Liam Sayers set up Jon Paul Avery for the first and then headed them in front from an inch perfect Rhys Hayter corner after the visitors had equalised.

Owen Ward completed the scoring in the second-half with a clever lobbed finish from Sayers pass, but McKenney was the match winner, making several crucial saves; the best of which was when with the game balanced at 1-1 he produced a superb low dive to push the ball around the post to keep out a certain goal.

BOB BUCKLER RACING

Ready or Not - Buckler wins in Wales

READY OR NOT stormed home at Ffos Las on Monday to give trainer Bob Buckler his first victory at the Welsh course.

The 7/1 shot, despite a bad blunder at the fourth fence recovered well in the Hall & Roche Handicap Chase, and with Andrew Glassonbury giving him a majestic ride they out ran Silver Story from the last to win by 1½ lengths with the rest of the field spread-eagled.

It was only the eight-year-olds second race over fences and on good ground to which he is much more suited.

Always in contention in a field of six, he blundered at the fourth, but as the race unfolded began to look dangerous and approaching the turn for home was handily placed behind Silver Story and Shake The Barley. At the fourth last Glassonbury cleverly steadied his charge as the other two went full throttle, and an excellent jump put him alongside.

Shake the Barley eventually tired but having nosed in front at the next he allowed Richard Johnson's horse to pull alongside again, before a superb last fence jump saw them pull away for a battling narrow victory.

Buckler said: "He ran a great race. The ground was more to his liking; he hated the heavy ground at Fontwell last time out. He's a big baby really, and was looking around two out, but came good. Andrew gave him a very good ride.

"He still needs to mature and get his head down and race, but it was very pleasing. We will look after him now and he will now stay on and go summer racing on the faster ground which he likes."

Last week began with an encouraging run from Small Fly, also at the new Welsh course, although he unfortunately fell three out. In only his second race, the first over hurdles, he was starting to make a bid for victory and disputing third when he got a small bump on the approach and slipped and slithered to the ground on landing.

"It was a good run," said Buckler. "He is very small and the slightest bump can unbalance him. He was staying on and I think might have got second place, had he stood up. He's a bit sore from the fall but okay."

Buckler's decision to run Ballyegan on the same card backfired and he finished mid-division in the Felinfoel Brewers' Dragon Stout Handicap Hurdle over three miles.

Buckler took the blame. "I think I ran him too quickly after Plumpton two weeks ago in heavy ground. Although the ground was better, it had not dried quickly enough and was still soft, and I don't think he had recovered completely. He ran a bit flat and made a couple of mistakes."

Buckler's own horse Different Trades ran a respectable fourth in the Richard Williams Memorial Hunters' Chase at Taunton. Ridden by Jack Barber, son of Richard Barber, Buckler's landlord at Henley, he made a mistake three out that probably cost him second place.

"If he had jumped the last three as well as the two before that then he would probably have got second; no one would have caught the winner, Whizhaar. But he ran a very respectable race; remember a hunter chase is one up from his usual point-to-point.

The stable would have been disappointed at Newbury where both The Sawyer and Double Dizzy were involved in the Blue Square Supporting Greatwood Veterans' Handicap Chase over 3¼ miles.

The Sawyer after his fine second in the Class1 Weatherbys Bloodstock Insurance Chase at Ascot recently, stood a good chance of victory but could only finish sixth after the ground had dried out too much for him.

"It was disappointing because the ground had dried out too much for him and although he stayed on they went too quick for him in the circumstances."

Meanwhile Double Dizzy was eventually pulled up by jockey Kieran Burke after one of his stirrups snapped late in the race and had to pull up.

Mister Matt found the ground at Huntingdon on Sunday a little too soft for him and whilst he put in a reasonable display to finish fourth in the Racing UK On Sky432 And Virgin536 Handicap Chase over 2½ miles.

"The ground was not as fast as he likes but he ran okay. He jumped well but is better on a left hand circuit and was also carrying top weight," added Buckler.

Confident Beaminster win again

Yeovil & Sherborne 3rd 0 Beaminster Ladies 3

LAST week's confidence boosting win over league leaders Salisbury was carried over to this week's match against Yeovil & Sherborne 3rds which resulted in a fairly comprehensive win for the West Dorset side.

Confident and strong from the off, they put the home defence under pressure and were rewarded when Julia May beat two players in the D before slotting the ball home.

When Yeovil did threaten they found keeper Rachel Andrews in fine form. Beaminster doubled their lead before the break through Freya Crawford who followed up to score following a good run and shot by player-of-the-match Danni Donovan.

Yeovil improved in the second-half but could not find a way through a resilient Beaminster defence who made the game safe when May picked up a rebound off Crawford's initial shot and moved into the D before setting the striker up for an easy goal.

The win puts Beaminster just a point behind their opponents and ahead of Poole on goal difference who beat bottom side Bournemouth 4ths, who they play next week.

With four games remaining, a win would open an eight point gap and almost certainly mean safety.

WEYMOUTH & DISTRICT TABLE TENNIS

Maximum haul for Trim

Shipton Gorge A 22 Springfield A 15 - Division 1

ALTHOUGH Richard Trim was again supreme in taking maximum points for the home side, it was Gil Roberts who ensured victory with two superb 3-0 victories and a total of seven points in the Weymouth & District Table Tennis League.

It was edge of your seat stuff as Roberts triumphed 13-11, 17-15, 11-9 over Springfield's number one Jon Bissett, and an equally close encounter saw Trim eventually triumph 3-2 over Sean Fergusson.

Chris Glover's four points meant that the match was safe at 20-12 before the doubles where Trim and Roberts were edged out 2-3.

Pilgrims 18 Shipton Gorge C 16 - Division 2

DESPITE Peter Billingham retaining his spot at the top of the league's individual table with another nine point maximum from three wins, the rest of the team could not match his performance.

Eddy Buck was beaten twice and only picked up five points and Colin Davis managed only one. Even so the doubles was reached with the score at 15-15 and it seemed that the visitors could still edge it against second in the table Pilgrims.

The first game went well with a 13-11 win for Buck and Billingham, but then the home team tightened up and deservedly took the next three games and the match.

Interviews for Olympic 'Games Makers' underway

A TEAM of interviewers from the London Organising Committee of the Olympic Games and Paralympic Games (LOCOG) arrived in Weymouth and Portland this week on the first stop of its regional tour to select up to 70,000 volunteers, known as Games Makers, who will lend their time, energy and expertise to volunteer at the London 2012 Games.

They will be selecting people to fill a wide range of roles which will range from welcoming and guiding spectators at the Olympic venues to helping with the distribution of athletes' kit and uniforms, not to mention the wide range of volunteer roles centred around the Olympic sailing events that will take place in the local area.

Among those helping to interview volunteers for Weymouth and Portland will be local McDonald's franchisee Nick Maybourn.

McDonald's is a Presenting Partner of the London 2012 Olympic and Paralympic Games Maker Programme, and is using its expertise in customer service and people development to help attract, select and train the diverse team of volunteers who will be needed.

Nick who has extensive experience of recruiting people with the attitude and qualities to thrive in a fast-paced environment who enjoy working in a team and delivering service and hospitality, will be looking for many of the same qualities in the Games Makers.

Interviewing started on Tuesday (March 8th) and continues until March 20th at the Weymouth and Portland National Sailing Academy.

Jean Tomlin, LOCOG Director of Human Resources said: "Thank you to everyone who offered their time and put in an application to volunteer with us during the 2012 Olympic and Paralympic Games.

"Applicants from the Dorset area should check the email address they applied to the Games Maker volunteer programme to see what day they have been invited to interview and choose a time to suit them. My team is very much looking forward to meeting Dorset based Games Maker applicants from 8 to 20 March."

Nick also offered a couple of tips to volunteers: "First impressions count - you'll be the face of the Games for thousands of spectators in 2012, and if you smile, make eye contact with your interviewer and put them at ease straightaway, you'll come across as a great potential Games Maker.

"Do your homework - find out about the different roles available for the Games Makers at www.london2012.com/volunteering so you can show you really understand the role, explain why you're a great fit, and display the knowledgeable manner you'd have when helping spectators at the Games.

"Not everyone can look after Usain Bolt's tracksuit while he does the 100m sprint, and if you show you're realistic and enthusiastic about the range of roles on offer, you'll show you're a great candidate to stick with the programme between now and the end of the event."

RUGBY ROUND-UP

WITH KEITH JENKIN

BRIDPORT PUSH LEADERS ALL THE WAY

FRESH from my triumph at Twickenham on Saturday last I decided to take in Weymouth's league encounter against visitors Bournemouth thirds on a day that had just a hint of spring about it.

Poor old Bridport seconds! Beseet by injuries and unavailabilities as they were they had no option to concede their game at Salisbury seconds.

WEYMOUTH 46pts, BOURNEMOUTH 3rd 13pts

THE home side were asked to play with the negligible breeze at their backs initially on a day that was ideal for running rugby, and did not in fact get off to the best of starts.

Having been pinned in their own twenty two, they kicked clear only for the ball to be run back at them to very good effect by the Bournemouth full-back.

He was finally checked but his colleagues recycled, went through the phases, playing some good rugby, and finally got over some ten yards from the posts. The try was converted and Weymouth were seven points in arrears before the game was five minutes old.

Bournemouth continued to be the better side and another flowing move was finally checked only feet short of the home posts by a home infringement. The easy place kick was spurned however, the ball kicked to the corner (something I disagreed with), and the move came to nought.

Weymouth eventually showed something of their capabilities and really should have scored after some fifteen minutes. They were unable to convert a two on one situation however, and the chance went begging.

They did get a score back however when Peplow kicked a penalty during what was an infrequent foray into Bournemouth territory but the visitors continued to apply the bulk of the pressure and were certainly the better side throughout the first quarter, only for Weymouth to take the lead after twenty minutes, very much against the run of play.

They moved the ball well from inside their own half, eventually freeing Will Smith, and the winger skated in from halfway and had the wit to run to the posts. Peplow goaled the try to give his side a 10-7 lead and the visitors must have been left scratching their heads, for they had dominated the first quarter.

To rub salt into the wound the lead was increased scant minutes later by Peplow's second penalty goal of the afternoon, kicked after the visitors' full-back had been caught in possession on his twenty two and penalised for holding on.

Another bout of Bournemouth pressure then ensued before Peplow kicked his third penalty of the half just five minutes before fore the break. They then scored an unconverted try after the visitors had failed to find touch with a penalty kick and the ball had been run back. A couple of missed tackles enabled the ball carriers to break the gain line. A chip ahead was then followed well. The visitors defence failed to clear and Wood was up to get over some five yards in from touch.

The try remained unconverted but, at 18-7 ahead, Weymouth had pulled clear. More was to come before the half time whistle, with Peplow kicking another penalty after Bournemouth had been penalised for handling in the ruck on their twenty two. '

Although Weymouth's lead of 21-7 at the half way stage did not reflect the pattern of the first-half, it would be churlish to say it was undeserved. They had certainly made the most of their opportunities while Bournemouth had not done so; and I felt that the visitors, while nimble enough as individuals, had done much of their work behind the gain line, and had not defended at all resolutely.

Although they did not increase their lead, Weymouth certainly had the better of the opening second half exchanges. It was Bournemouth however who reduced the arrears by converting a penalty after some ten minutes play.

They kicked another on the hour to really get themselves back into the contest at 21-13 only for the home side to snuff out the threat almost immediately. After a good run from midfield, they spread the ball wide and, although checked just short, they made the ball available and Luke Savage got over close to touch. The kick missed but at 26-13 ahead, I felt the game was safe.

The visitors appeared to run out of puff at this stage and another home try came with ten minutes left. Wood made a good break on the right. The ball was switched in field and, after his full back had made room for him, Peplow ran the loop and got over in the opposite corner.

Again the try remained unconverted but two more tries came as the visitors faded. A penalty was kicked to the corner and the ensuing lineout was mauled over with Sample coming up with the ball. Then, at the last, the ball was put through many pairs of hands. The visitors' cover ran out and Gibson got over out wide. Peplow, who had enjoyed a good day with the boot, kicked the conversion with the final kick of the day.

Strangely there was no real pattern to this encounter. While Bournemouth were perhaps a little flashy in attack, they did not defend nearly as well as the home side. Weymouth's fitness levels were also considerably better and they would have ended the day well satisfied with this win.

LYTCHETT MINSTER 2nd 21pts, WEYMOUTH 2nd 25pts

WEYMOUTH kept their promotion hopes alive with this bonus point away win after a game that was blighted by no less than five sin binnings. In fact, although they scored two unconverted tries in the first half, both touched down by Callum Guest, they trailed 12-10 at the half way stage. Two further tries in the second half, one by Oaksford and the other by Les Moon, were enough to see them home however, for their opponents could only reply with three penalty goals. Skipper Allen converted the Moon try and also kicked a penalty to complete the scoring.

DEVIZES 12pts, DORCHESTER 17pts

PLAYING down the slight slope, but facing the wind as they were, Dorchester remained in somnolent mood throughout the first period and ended the half 12 points in arrears.

The home out half had his kicking boots on and converted four penalties from four attempts. This twelve point lead could easily have been extended had not Devizes been brought back for an infringement after they had crossed for tries on a couple of occasions.

Strong words were on offer with the half time oranges however and the effect was a marked one, for Dorchester reduced the deficit with a penalty goal, kicked from in front by James Baker, scant seconds after the restart. Now, having seemingly found the secret, Dorchester scored again almost directly from the restart after a break by centre Waddington.

His break was finally checked some ten yards short, the ball was recycled and Sam Prior surged over. Again Baker added the extras to cut the deficit to a mere two points. The third quarter really belonged to the visitors and their pressure finally told when number eight Prior ran strongly and crashed over.

Baker's kick was again successful and his side now led 17-12. Devizes were not done however. They mounted something of a rally and provided the Dorchester camp with one or two anxious moments during the final 15 minutes.

They could not narrow the scoreline however and the visitors held on for the narrow win after a performance that would have left their coach rather puzzled and frustrated.

DORCHESTER 2nd 6pts, PUDDLETOWN 16pts

DEFENCES held sway for much of this close, local derby encounter and, although it was Puddletown who established an edge early on, principally through the efforts of their eight, they could not cross the home line and, at the end of the first quarter they had just two penalty goals, both converted by Udell, to show for their efforts and pressure.

It was Udell too who crossed the home line after 25 minutes play. His pack had driven deep into Dorchester's twenty five, sucking the cover before releasing the ball. He gathered at pace and had the strength to get over in spite of the close attentions of one or two defenders.

The try, unconverted though it remained, gave the visitors an 11 point lead, but the home side were far from done. They responded with two penalty goals, kicked by full-back Fry, and these brought them firmly back into the contest by the half way stage.

If Puddletown had been in the ascendancy during the first quarter, then the third belong to Dorchester as they examined the visitors' defence repeatedly. It coped however, with Chidley prominent, and Puddletown reasserted themselves during the later stages.

In fact it wanted just ten minutes to the whistle for 'no side' when the final score came. Puddletown had worked their way into home territory via a series of pick and drives, culminating in a ruck on the line initiated by man of the match Hill. The well protected scrum-half then fed Chidley as first receiver and the skipper barrelled over. This try too remained unconverted, but it importantly put Puddletown a score clear, and they played out time to record a very satisfying win.

Rugby extras

Oakmedians U16 5
Dorchester RFC 31

THIS was a stuttering display at times by Dorchester, against a spirited but ultimately one-dimensional opposition.

The visitors took time to adjust to the game and had to withstand some early pressure from their hosts. Gradually though Dorchester gained possession, then territory, and were rewarded when Hugh Vivian peeled of the back of a five metre scrum and crashed over.

With the score behind them the visitors exerted more pressure and this time Will Holmes came off his wing cut a great angle to touch down. With confidence now evident the visitors constantly harassed the home defence, and when Holmes chased down a kick up field the Oaks full-back was forced to throw the ball away.

From the ensuing turnover quick hands allowed Freddie Madgwick to wriggle his way over for the games third try. Harry Smith converted all three to allow a comfortable 21-0 lead at the break.

Oaks came out a little more determined after half-time. However a sloppy turnover saw Dorchester whip the ball out wide where full back Kieran Fry joined the line and went over in the corner for an unconverted score.

Oaks were definitely more competitive at this stage and were playing with renewed confidence; however the visitors defence kept them out.

The game was then played in the middle of the park and became a little error strewn, however from broken play second row Ben Lashmar appeared with the ball and sprinted 35 metres and finished off.

With a comfortable lead Dorchester made a number of changes which ultimately affected their rhythm, and for the last 10 minutes or so Oaks mounted a series of attacks and were finally rewarded when they touched down with the final play of the game.

On a calm evening they fished a rising spring tide, with high tide at 2230. Most of the entrants fished Lyme Regis where they mainly caught pout and rockling, whilst those that chose Chesil Beach found a few dogfish. Top bait was ragworm.

Only four different species were caught; dogfish, whiting, rockling and pout, with Steve Harwood's single dogfish securing him the prize.

BRIDPORT 18pts, SALISBURY 35pts

THIS game came within 15 minutes of turning up the biggest upset of this, or indeed any other season. With 65 minutes gone Bridport, who had competed vigorously with the league leaders throughout, led by a single point at 18-17.

At this juncture Salisbury, who seemed a little shell shocked by the way things had transpired, edged their way into the lead by kicking a penalty goal. The relief was transparent and, as the home side now tried to chase the game, a converted try from an interception followed.

Bridport, who had scored tries through Will Everett and Croft with Wes Lewis kicking a conversion and adding two penalty goals, had no option but to continue to be expansive and Salisbury stretched away to safety at the last to reach a score line that flattered them a little. If Bridport can bring this commitment and discipline to their remaining games, then they do have a chance of retaining their league status.

PREVIEW

WEYMOUTH face opponents whom they should certainly beat. WESTBURY lie in a rather lowly position in the Dorset & Wilts League Division One (South) and were bested by some 40 points when the sides met at Weymouth back in the autumn. They don't appear to have shown too much form, either before that reversal, or subsequently and they appear to be a side whose pack only allow the backs to use the ball after they have finished with it. They are engaged in a relegation battle currently however, and may be motivated by this, but I think that Weymouth will match them up front and have the backs to score enough tries to take them to the away win.

DORCHESTER play at home against SHERBORNE. I do remember them travelling to Sherborne with confidence last November, losing narrowly, and really feeling that they had no one to blame but themselves. I expect them to put the record straight and come out on top, probably by a couple of scores, but only after a hard fought encounter.

BRIDPORT will, I fear, be hard put to gain too much joy from their journey to NORTH DORSET for their opponents lie just out of the promotion race and, moreover won the earlier game at Bridport by 31-15.

The Brewery Field side really do have to put one or two wins together if they are to avoid the drop, but I do not see them doing so on Saturday. They will certainly take confidence from last Saturday's performance however.

PUDDLETOWN too have a real tester with the visit of SALISBURY seconds, for their opponents lead the Dorset & Wilts League Division Two (South) at the moment. They beat Puddletown by a distance earlier in the piece and will be hoping to do so again to cement their promotion push. I do think that the home side has improved recently, but I think that a win will be beyond them.

As to the second sides, Bridport seconds who had been showing signs of improvement before having to concede on Saturday last, take on Poole at home and, if their improvement continues, they could well win this one.

Dorchester seconds will find the going tough at South Wilts however, as will Dorchester thirds when they face visitors, Salisbury thirds.

Weymouth seconds have, what is on paper anyway, the hardest game of the day, and one that they must win if they are to maintain their promotion challenge, when they play Oakmedians thirds at home.

FIXTURES 12th March: Bridport v North Dorset (away); Bridport 2nd v Poole; Chard v Stothert & Pitt (away). Chard 2nd v Crewkerne; Dorchester v Sherborne (home); Dorchester 2nd v South Wilts (away); Dorchester 3rd v Salisbury 3rd (away); Puddletown v Salisbury 2nd; Sidmouth v Clevedon; Sidmouth 3rd v Tiverton 3rd; Weymouth v Westbury (away). Weymouth 2nd v Oakmedians 3rd.

THE Monthly Medal was played in very frosty conditions which meant that players had to play on 18 temporary greens.
This of course made the competition 'unqualifying' due to the shortened course and fewer hazards, it was still a challenge because of the

INSIDE: Beaminster through to Challenge Cup Final

Trevor: We cannot afford to lose

BRIDPORT manager Trevor Senior whilst disappointed with Saturday's defeat at home to Almondsbury UWE was however magnanimous in defeat despite losing ground in the promotion race to nearest rivals Oldland Abbotonians who gained a draw and opened up their lead over Bridport to five points.

"All credit to them, they are a decent side, but we should be beating these sides and not relying on other teams dropping points."

The Bees travel to Bristol next Saturday and Senior said: "Next week's game is a must win really. We certainly cannot afford to lose. A draw would still leave us five points adrift, but I guess it would mean we still have a chance with still lots of games to play."

Reflecting on Saturday's game he said: "We played okay in the first half and had lots of possession. We create lots of chances but don't seem to be able to take them."

and was the difference between the two teams.

"True we didn't get the rub of the green, but there have been times when we have benefitted in similar circumstances so we cannot complain, and their goal just before the break, and Sam Charles' unfortunate miss immediately after were pivotal points."

"At 2-0 down we were always chasing the game, but we still kept going. It's very frustrating, but we have to go again. We needed three points here really."

Asked if it was a straight race between Bridport and Oldland Abbotonians for the second promotion spot Senior felt that Cadbury Heath were dark horses and could have a say in the end.

They are one of the best sides in the league and could be dark horses. They beat us at home and we only got a point at their place."
